I LOVE MY FRIENDS VOLUME 4

What the heck is this?

I Love My Friends is a zine put together by me,
Ja(y/mes) "Iannis Wagner" Nee, to express my appreciation for and admiration of — you guessed it — my friends!

From paintings to poetry to anything else,
I adore my friends' works and words;

ILMF serves to compile these wonderful things.

Please note that while I have my friends' permission to reproduce their creations, I'm not sure if you do!

If you'd like to share something you've found in this zine on, say, your tumblr, please contact me first at ilmfzine@gmail.com so I can clear it with the artist. Thanks for understanding!

This brooch serves as a study for creating kinetic jewelry, while retaining the artist's identity.

Utilizing a found badge holder, the brooch becomes interactive, as the wearer can pull the keys and fake feathers.

And what rough beast, its hour come round at last, Slouches toward Bethlehem to be born!
