Brewery	Beer	Brewer	Barrel Type	Aged	ABV	Characteristics
Deschutes	The Abyss	Brew Crew	French Oak		11.0%	the Abyss has immeasurable depth inviting you to explore and discover its rich, complex profile. Hints of molasses, licorice and other alluring flavors draw you in further and further with each sip.
Deschutes	Jubel 2010	Brew Crew	Oak Pinot Barrels		10.0%	February 2010 marks only the second time we have ever bottled this immortal libation. As some of you may remember, the first and only other time this special brew was bottle was to celebrate the new millennium as Jubel 2000
Dogfish Head	Palo Santo Marron	Andy Tveekrem	Paraguyan Palo Santo Wood		12.0%	An unfiltered, unfettered, unprecedented brown ale aged in handmade wooden brewing vessels. The caramel and vanilla complexity unique to this beer comes from the exotic Paraguayan Palo Santo Wood from which these tanks were crafted. The beer is highly roasty, and malty brown ale.
Drakes	Wylid Stallyns	Josh & Brian	Port Merlot American Oak	2+ 1.5 years	7.9%	The black beauty watches over two great ones. Josh Theodore Logan & Brian S. Preston, Esquire, who super-soured some excellent Imperial Stout and ES8 beers and blended them together.
Drakes	Brett Butler	Brian	Pinot Noir French Oak	10 months	9.0%	100% Belgian Triple aged in a Pinot Noir barrel and briefly exposed to the San Leandro atmosphere. An excellent lead-off hit when going into sour left field. It was the year of the pitcher this past year, but this beer still hits with a budding tartness that balances the body which is still present and unconsumed.
Drakes	Volte-Face	Brian & Josh	Merlot American Oak	1.5 years	5.5%	Sour Belgian Blonde & Sour Amber do the flip-flop of sour tastes. Belgian imparts the "trebly & high-end" character, and the Amber beer comes in with an Earthy sourness. Diplomatically revolutionary to each other.
Drakes	The Creator has a Mastertape	Brian	Port French Oak	1 year	6.0%	2 beers in a one single-barrel blend of American Red and Porter cellared in a Port Barrel (Praeger Portworks, 2006 Royal Escort Port Barrel) Haven't figured out which type of surround sound it is yet, but the beer is definitely echoing its ancestor from port right into beerdom.
Drakes	Kadath Decoded	Josh, Brian, Mike Jeff	Pinot Noir Merlot, Grenache	3 years	10.0%	In this dream sequence, a wine barrel mixture of 80% Imperial Stouts aged in French Oak Pinot Noir and Merlot barrels is blended with 20% Barleywine aged in a French Oak Grenache barrel.
Fifty Fifty Brewing	Imperial Eclipse Stout -2010 Four	Todd & Kyle Ashman	Four Roses Single Barrel (10 yr old)	225 days	10.0%	aged at 38 degrees Fahrenheit
