Use backside of sheet for additional employers

For driver applicants of commercial motor vehicles that require a Commercial Driver License (CDL) the applicant must disclose their controlled substance and alcohol status per the requirements of 49 CFR part 40.25(j).

As a prospective driver employee, you have the right to review information provided by previous employers. You have the right to have errors in the information corrected by the previous employer(s) and for that previous employer(s) to re-send the corrected information to the prospective employer; the right to have a rebuttal statement attached to the alleged erroneous information, if the previous employer and the driver cannot agree on the accuracy of the information.

Driver employees who have previous Department of Transportation regulated employment history in the preceding three years, and wish to review previous employer provided investigative information, must submit a written request to the prospective employer, which may be done at anytime, including when applying or as late as thirty (30) days after being employed or being notified of denial of employment. The prospective employer must provide this information to the applicant within five (5) business days of receiving the written request. If the prospective employer has not yet received the requested information from the previous employer(s), then the five (5) business day deadlines will begin when the prospective employer receives the requested safety performance history information. If the driver has not arranged to pick up or receive the requested records within thirty (30) days of the prospective employer making them available, the prospective motor carrier may consider the driver to have waived their request to review the records.

SECTION II
ANNUAL REVIEW OF DRIVING RECORD
391.25

Driver's Information:

This day I reviewed the driving record of the above named driver in accordance with 391.25 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations. I considered any evidence that the driver has violated applicable provisions of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations and the Hazardous Materials Regulations. I considered the driver's accident record and any evidence that he/she has violated laws governing the operation of motor vehicles, and gave great weight to violations, such as speeding, reckless driving and operating under the influence of alcohol or drugs, that indicated that the driver has exhibited a disregard for safety of the public. Having done the above, I find that

- the driver meets the minimum requirements for safe driving, or
- the driver is disqualified to drive a motor vehicle pursuant to 391.15.

CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH DRIVER LICENSE REQUIREMENTS

The requirements in Part 383 apply to every driver who operates in intrastate, interstate, or foreign commerce and operates a vehicle weighing 26,001 pounds or more, can transport more than 15 people, or transports hazardous materials that require placarding.

The requirements in Part 391 apply to every driver who operates in interstate commerce and operates a vehicle weighing 10,001 pounds or more, can transport more than 15 people, or transports hazardous materials that require placarding.

DRIVER REQUIREMENTS: Parts 383 and 391 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations contain some requirements that you as a driver must comply with. These requirements are in effect as of July 1, 1987. They are as follows:

1. POSSESS ONLY ONE LICENSE: You, as a commercial vehicle driver, may not possess more than one motor vehicle operator's license.

If you have more than one license, keep the license from your state of residence and return the additional license to the states that issued them. DESTROYING a license does not close the record in the state that issued it; you must notify the state.

If a multiple license has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, close your record by notifying the state of issuance that you no longer want to be licensed by the state.

2. NOTIFICATION OF LICENSE SUSPENSION, REVOCATION OR CANCELLATIONS Sections 392.42 and 383.33 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations require that you notify your employer the NEXT BUSINESS DAY of any revocation or suspension of your driver's license.

In addition, Section 383.31 requires that any time you violate a state or local traffic law (other than parking), you must report it within 30 days to : 1) your employing carrier, and 2) the state that issued your license (if the violation occurs in a state other than the one which issued your license). The notification to both the employer and state must be in writing.
