DATELINE: APRIL 2012

GENESIS

Some things change and some things stay the same, and this goes for 3XW as well. Since Genesis had formed, they wreaked havoc all across the 3XW so in 2011.

In the months leading up to May, Jeremy Wyatt had teased an alliance with Genesis, saying "Yes." It wasn't very convincing to the fans in attendance, but Genesis thought they had the Rebel in their pocket. At the May event "Over the Top" Gauntlet For the Gold battle royal, it came down to a few remaining Genesis members including Wyatt. Everyone was celebrating thinking it'd be a team win. One by one, Wyatt began to eliminate the unsuspecting Genesis group, gaining the win and a future title shot at champion Brian Ash. Genesis was furious and tried attacking Wyatt, but he fled the building. Commissioner Countryman told the crowd that Wyatt wouldn't be so quick to get a title shot unless he ran a gauntlet in June. If he won, he'd then get his shot.

June rolled around Wyatt faced a 3 man gauntlet of Genesis members. They constantly tried to screw him over, but in the end, Wyatt won out, earning his shot at Brian Ash at the July 6th Anniversary show.

July brought us the most anticipated event in 3XW's year of shows, the Anniversary event. Wyatt withstood a beat down from Genesis and was able to capture the title, even forcing Brian Ash to tap out to the KC Crossface and force the former champ to take a leave of absence after that match. With Brian Ash gone, Genesis spent the rest of 2011 and early 2012 in turmoil.

Gone from Genesis are AJ Smooth, Steve Biley, Zach Thompson and Tony Sly. Slade and former partner Ryan Slade battled it in June out in a Sideburns vs. Sideburns match, where the loser had their trademark sideburns shaved off! At the 6th Anniversary show, they did battle in a grueling Canadian Tuxedo match, which means that both participants are denim clad. At the August King of Des Moines event, AJ Smooth faced off against Genesis partner Zach Thompson in the 2nd round of the tournament. There was a distraction by Countryman that allowed Thompson to get a quick roll up at the bell to advance. AJ Smooth was not happy. Slade went on to defeat Thompson in the finals when AJ Smooth came out and distracted Thompson to give Slade the win. In the end, it appeared as if the former partners would go at it again, but fans witnessed a reunion of Sexier and Smoother (new name from Sexy and Smooth).

As for Steve Biley, it was felt that he wasn't doing a good enough job in helping the team win. He was brutally attacked by the group and left for dead. Out with a separated shoulder, he was thought to be done, but he has since returned to his refereeing position. When some members weren't seemingly pulling their weight, Commissioner and Genesis manager Todd Countryman put Tony Sly, Zach Thompson and Devin Carter into a "loser leaves Genesis" match. Thompson lost, but in the end, Sly ended up quitting the group, citing that he's no longer fitting in and getting the respect he deserves. He vowed to take Genesis apart, one wrestler at a time. He made good on his promise by defeating Devin Carter in his first bout against his former partners.

As we head into mid-2012, Genesis consists of Gage Octane, Devin Carter, Casanova, Nate Bash, and Ben Sailer. Countryman accompanies the first three to the ring at all times, but is quick to run out and interfere for Bash and Sailer in a tag match if needed. Carter and Casanova continue to team as the Gentlemen's Club, but Octane and Casanova have also teamed up on occasion as OctaNova. Can three top flight tag teams keep Genesis from imploding in 2012?

TAG TEAM TURMOIL

Reigning tag team champions in the Horndogs (Maddog McDowell and Krotch) are forced to vacate their titles due to a career-ending injury to Krotch in April 2012. McDowell goes on to form a partnership with Jon West called the American Bulldogs.

May began a four team tournament to crown new champions. The Bulldogs lost out to American Ground and Air in the 1st round. The team of Arik Cannon and Darin Corbin defeated Genesis' Casanova and Devin Carter to advance to the finals. At the June event "Downtown Destruction 3," American Ground and Air went on to win the tag titles beating Cannon and Corbin in the finals. Bash and Sailer dominated the tag team competition throughout the rest of the year and into 2012. The new team of Mike Sydal and Jimmy Rockwell won the tag straps for one month in February 2012, before Bash and Sailer regained them. The American Bulldogs then defeated American Ground and Air in April 2012 for their first tag team championship.

FLIRTING WITH DISASTER

The Mylan Management Agency (MMA) and the American Bulldogs along with Skylar Pierce fiercely battled throughout 2011 with the addition of the Mauler to the MMA. Even Chad Mylan and Skylar Pearce stepped into the ring to battle for their respective sides. In January 2012, things finally culminated in a feud-ending Flag Match.

Sir Bradley Charles has received quite the push with his hot streak of winning. At the July anniversary event, SBC was selected by the fans to face Zach Thompson for the Pure title, replacing the injured Mark Sterling. SBC won the title that evening, much to the fans' delight. Sterling eventually returned and turned on his friend SBC, claiming that SBC was getting a big head at getting a title shot. SBC next locked horns and traded the Pure title with Arik Cannon. The now-nefarious Cannon has taken to the heel side and turned on the fans.

Speaking of Sterling, his long and storied feud with Jeremy Wyatt rekindled. In November at November Knockout 3, Sterling jumped Wyatt backstage after losing his title match and injured his knee. In December at Holiday Havoc 3, they squared off yet again as Sterling was victorious, claiming his first-ever 3XW heavyweight title.

With Wyatt no longer the champion, this paved the way for him to face NWA World Champion "Scrap Iron" Adam Pearce at Divide & Conquer 2 in January. Wyatt came in as the NWA Central States champion and faced off for the NWA title which hadn't been defended in Des Moines in over 25 years. (It should be noted that the first-ever NWA champion was crowned in Des Moines, so there is a lot of history with that championship in Des Moines!) Wyatt gave it his all and nearly had the title won during a ref bump, but due to Sterling's interference, the original ref reversed the decision and DQ'd Wyatt, thus giving Pearce the win and retaining the belt.

Enraged by Sterling's interference, Wyatt challenged him to a second Iron Man Match. In January 2011, these two tore the house down for over 70 minutes with Sterling emerging victorious. Sterling dodged the challenge at first, but Wyatt "convinced" him to sign for the match by handcuffing him to the ropes and threatening to hammer his groin with a chair unless he signed. March 2012 saw the most anticipated 3XW Heavyweight Championship in years, as Wyatt defeated Sterling with seconds remaining to win the Iron Man 2 match 4 falls to 3.

WYATT INJURED! CHAMPIONSHIP SCENE UNKNOWN!

While competing at a non-3XW event in Illinois in early April 2012, Jeremy Wyatt broke his leg in multiple places and was expected to be out of action for at least four months. After much deliberation with the 3XW Board of Directors, Commissioner Todd Countryman announced that he was stripping Jeremy Wyatt of the 3XW Heavyweight Championship! He went on to state that the May 2012 Gauntlet for the Gold battle royal would decide the new 3XW Heavyweight Champion! Who will win this historic event? It's up to you promoter!

MORE 3XW WRESTLER TO COME!

We hope that you enjoy this mini expansion set to 3XW. Throughout the rest of 2012, look for more wrestlers and managers being added to the roster, including the likes of...

Darin Corbin
Arik Cannon (3XW version)
Matty Starr
Skylar Pierce (manager card)
Darryl Moon (ring announcer card)
Jon West & Maddog McDowell (American Bulldog tag versions) and lots more!

The feedback from the first set was phenomenal and we hope that this can only add to that. A big thanks to the 3XW staff and wrestlers for allowing us once again get the information, autographs and being so personable. Things like this make 3XW one of the best fan-friendly feds out there.

Check out 3XW at: www.3XWrestling.com, "like" them on facebook or follow them on Twitter.

"IRON MAN" MARK STERLING

HEIGHT: 6'1" WEIGHT: 220 lbs. FROM: Lawrence, Kansas

FINISHER: DISASTERPIECE (Sterling picks up the opponent in a fireman's carry. Sterling runs him headfirst into a turnbuckle, then crosses the ring and runs him into the opposite turnbuckle. He then carries the opponent to the center of the ring and delivers a devastating Celtic Cross/White Noise!)

The "Iron Man" had a controversial year in 3XW. When he returned after suffering a staph infection in his knee, he turned on former friend and traveling partner Sir Bradley Charles. Sterling quickly abandoned the fans and SBC, and returned to the super aggressive style that he displayed when he entered 3XW. Sterling reignited his feud with Jeremy Wyatt in November 2011, and claimed the 3XW title in December 2011. Was defeated by Wyatt in the Iron Man 2 match for the 3XW title. Has to be considered one of the top contenders to claim the title at Gauntlet for the Gold.

THE MAULER

Height: 6'2" Weight: 280 lbs. From: Libya

FINISHER: PILEDRIVER

Trained to wrestle by the legendary Verne Gagne, The Mauler made his mysterious debut in 3XW in late 2010 by helping Ricky Kwong and Chad Mylan attack Jimmy Rockwell, thus giving the MMA some serious muscle in their ranks. Tagging with Kwong, the MMA made huge waves in 2011 with their violent assault on Maddog McDowell and Jon West, the American Bulldogs. This is perhaps one of 3XW's biggest feuds in history, which has apparently ended...or has it? The Mauler will also take it up solo and try to destroy everyone in his path to bring the 3XW title to the MMA and Chad Mylan. In various other independents, Mauler also goes by the name of "The Mauler" JB Payne.

RAY STRYKER

Height: 5'11" Weight: 210 lbs From: Stuart, IA

FINISHER: THE EXTINGUISHER (fireman's carry-ace crusher)

The firefighter-turned-pro wrestler rookie has just started out here in 3XW and was voted 2011 "Newcomer of the Year." He's been involved in a few scramble and tag team matches, but most notably as of late is his battle with Gage Octane. Gage has criticized Ray for many things, including just being a rookie, but has shown respect for the young man just starting out. Ray is taking his lumps and improving each month. With youth on his side, this guy is going to be a star in 3XW.

RIVER MONSTER

Height: ? Weight: ? From: The Des Moines River

FINISHER: None

Here is an elusive creature. Various sightings of him are reported in and around Iowa, but they are very rare and some believe him to be a myth. Competing mostly in six man tag matches and battle royals, it's anyone's guess as to when we'll see him next. Ringside observers have noted that the Monster appears to have different skin tones at times, leading them to speculate that more than one River Monster exists!
