COMMUNITY COUNTDOWN PARTIES ORGANISED BY RESIDENTS, WITH RESIDENTS AND FOR RESIDENTS

Every year, the People Association (PA) Grassroots Organisations (GROs) organise community countdown parties to create opportunities for residents to meet and make friends, and share their wishes and aspirations for the New Year. This year, about 50 Community Countdown Parties will be organised at various locations around the island, reaching out to more than 88,000 residents of different ages, races and nationalities.

2 This year's countdown parties, revolve around a resident-centric theme "Countdown with All, for All". These celebrations are organised by the residents, with the residents and for the residents of different races and social backgrounds. They will serve as a great platform for residents to come together to do something meaningful with their families and friends and share their wishes and aspirations for the New Year with their neighbours. Residents will deepen their engagement, make new friends and have fun as a community, hence building stronger community bonds. The parties planned this year range from large scale events that reach out to thousands of residents, to more cosy ones organised by the Residents' and Neighbourhood Committees.

3 This year, we not only see more youths stepping up to help plan and organise these parties for their friends and the community. Some of these key events include the Sembawang GRC Hypesteria 2013 Countdown Party – countdown to COSMOS!, Sengkang West "SHOUT" 2013 Countdown Celebration and Bedok Countdown 2013 – Together We Celebrate 'Countdown 2013'.

4 Over at "Sembawang GRC Hypesteria Countdown Party – countdown to COSMOS!", youth interest groups such as the Astronomy Interest Group have planned an exciting programme for residents to gather and 'watch the stars' through the telescopic lens, live performances by local community artists and bands, interactive booths and activities by Sembawang GRC Youth Executive Committees and Live SMSes feed for residents to share their well wishes at the event.

5 The Sengkang West “SHOUT” 2013 Countdown Celebration organised by Sengkang West GROs, promises to be another exciting event with a spectacular 5-minute pyrotechnics display, local professional and amateurs cosplayers will attempt to create the first Singapore of Records for the largest Cosplay Gathering, a special “Red Carpet style” mini catwalk and fashion parade, “Best Shot of the Night” photography competition, various performances by Cosplayers, local cultural groups and popular artistes that promotes interaction among participants young and old.

6 Bedok residents will be organising its inaugural heartlands countdown – Bedok Countdown 2013 – Together We Celebrate ‘Countdown 2013’ to come together to celebrate the joyous event. Residents can pen their New Year resolutions and wishes on the wishing cards on their Bedok Wishing Tree in their neighbourhood. Through the “Sponsor a Wish” initiative, organisers have seen residents coming together to sponsor a wish for 50 selected ComCare recipients in Bedok with financial difficulties, as their part in contributing giving back to society. There will be fireworks to welcome the New Year.

7 More information on the Community Countdown Parties is at Annexes A and B. Details can also be found at www.OurCommunity.sg and www.facebook.com/CommunityCountdownParties. Your journalist and photographer are cordially invited to the parties.
