

HUMAN RIGHTS WEEK 2013

February 11th - 16th

Monday 2/11

DEBATE AND DISCUSS

6:00pm, Campus Y 208

"Is healthcare a human right?"

Come join Di-Phi and AHR members in debating and discussing whether healthcare is a human right. What's your opinion?

Tuesday 2/12

SCREENING

7:00pm, Dey

"The New Asylums"

FRONTLINE: America's severely mentally ill, who once would have been in state psychiatric hospitals, are now in state prisons. Why is this happening? and what is mental health care like behind bars?

Ongoing:

VOICES THROUGH VISIONS PHOTO CONTEST

Please send entries to ahrphotocontest@gmail.com by 11:59pm on 2/15. Include: Your name, year and phone number, the photo, its title, and the year it was taken, and brief sentence (<50 words) describing the human rights concept captured by the entry.

Saturday 2/16

HUMAN RIGHTS DINNER

6:00pm, Anne Queen Lounge

"Women's Rights as Human Rights: Current Issues in Our Community."

Free dinner from Saladelia

* This event will be open for the first 25 people to RSVP to ahr.campusy@gmail.com

Friday 2/15

PSS TRAINING

12:00pm Campus Y 207-208

Learn how to write an effective lobbying letter. Focus on comprehensive immigration reform.

SPOKEN WORD FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

7:00pm, Bingham 103

Thursday 2/14

COFFEE BREAK

Campus Y Room 103

Discussion with Professor Rudi Colledredo-Mansfield on community economics and cultural change in the contest of globalization.

FAIR TRADE CHOCOLATE

12:00pm, The Pit

Wednesday 2/13

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

7:00pm, Nelson Mandela Auditorium

Former President of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) Nadine Strossen: "Defending Human Rights for All: From Right to Left and From Right to Wrong"

Human Rights Week Co-sponsors:

Campus Y; UNC Student Congress; Curriculum in Peace, War and Defense; Parr Center for Ethics; Political Science Department; Curriculum in International Studies; UNC Civil Rights Center; Young Democrats; Roosevelt Institute Social Justice Center, Criminal Justice Awareness and Activism, Students United for Immigrant Equality, Linking Immigrants to New Communities - Know Your Rights, Carolina Against Slavery and Trafficking, AGRADU, World Micro-Market, Mellenium Village Project,

Visit HRW
co-sponsor World
Micro-Market's
Valentine's Day Sale:
Tues. 2/12 from 8-10pm
Wed. 2/13 from 5-7pm