Streetwear brand made to influence the world.

Founded amidst the boredom of the Philippine heat by a group of creative individuals, Bakecon™ is here to inspire. The main goal is to influence people with awesome ideas and its parallels through pure Filipino ingenuity with high quality garments. This is street wear re-envisioned.

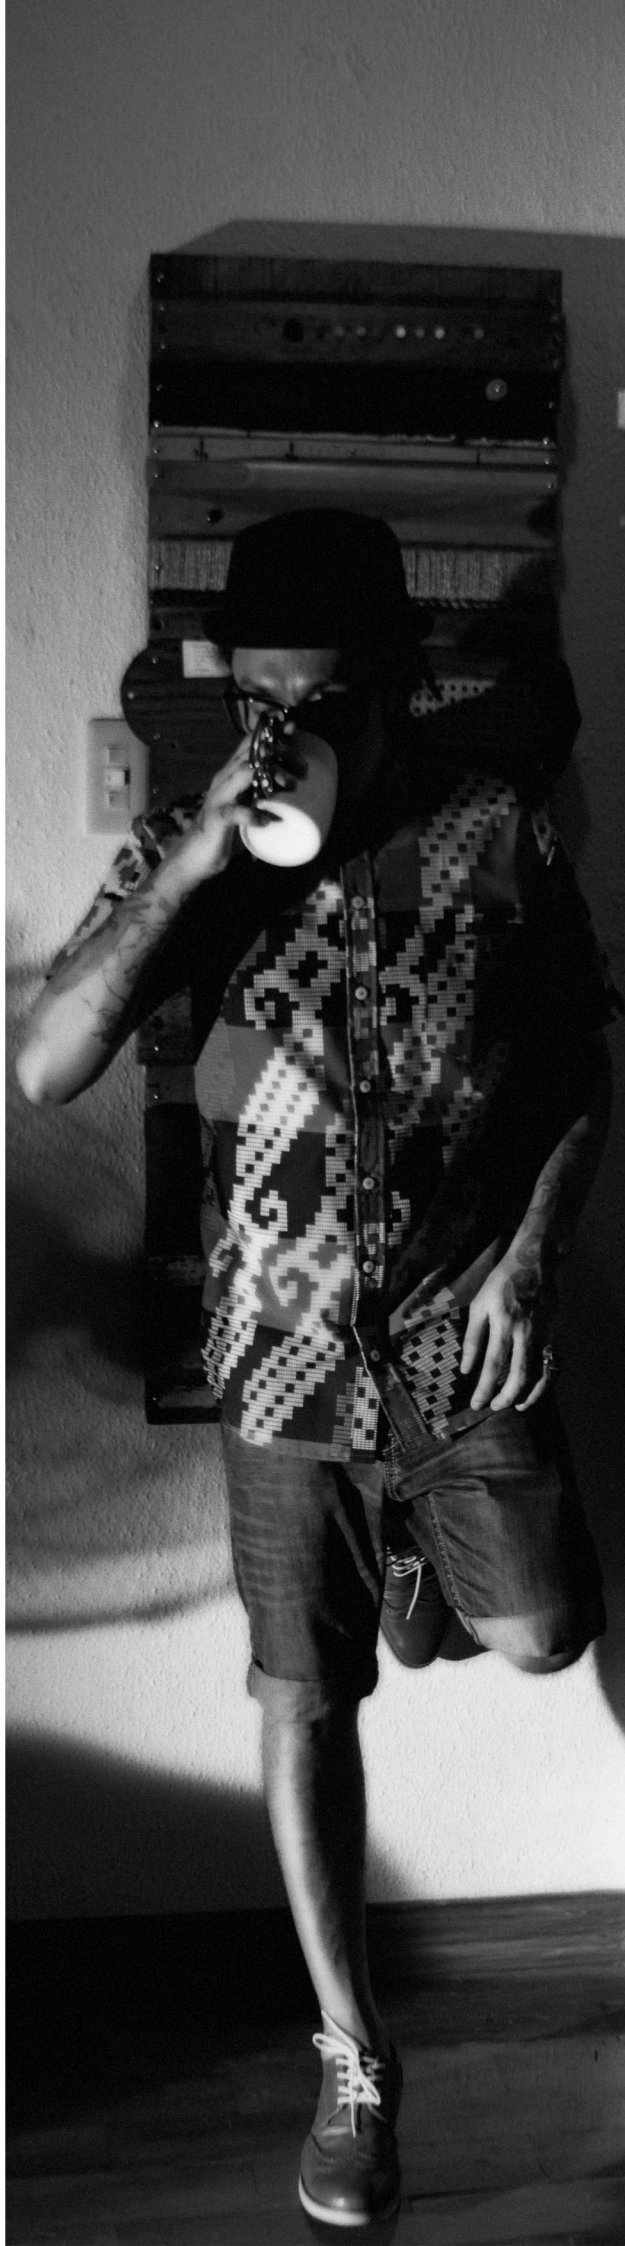

The image features a light gray background with a central crest of the University of Illinois. The crest is a shield with a stylized 'I' and 'U' and a red block 'I' in the center. It is flanked by two laurel branches that curve upwards and outwards, forming a wreath around the central text.
