

CONTENTS of EXHIBITS

Ex 1. People v. Hence & Gallagher, No. 79-911862 (Wayne Co. Cir. Court, 10/30/80), (V. Baum, J.)

Ex 2. Complaint, charging Hence & Gallagher with murder-1, and conspiracy to commit same.

Ex 3. Jury instructions, where it was required that jury find Hence and Gallagher committed crime.

Ex 4. Transcript quotes where deliberating jury sent notes asking for evidence, & further instructions.

Ex 5. Confidential letter from Grievance Commission, revealing atty. "significantly impaired entire time" he represented Hence.

Ex 6. Disciplinary action imposed upon Mr. Mouradian while he represented Hence, including: two suspensions, three reprimands, fines, etc., all for similarly botching other indigent appeals.

Ex 7. Successor Judge's decisions (portions) where: in 1984, he denied relief based upon Mr. Mouradian's grossly erroneous ad lib, and, in 1988, relief was denied using a different theory.

Ex 8. Letter from ACLU, regarding poor representation Hence received from appointed counsel.

Ex 9. Recanting Affidavit, of Norman Wayne "Worm" Robinson, which the appeal prosecutor successfully threatened, and coerced, him into retracting.

Ex 10. Transcript excerpts, where the prosecutor made just some of the threats -- that Robinson not be "truthful" or else -- which contributed to Robinson retracting his recanting Affidavit.

Ex 11. Side-by-side comparison of Robinson & Edmonds' testimony, revealing wide discrepancies.

Ex 12. Transcript pages documenting trial counsel, Mr. Tropp's, inability to cross-exam state's witness Robinson; where counsel needed instruction from the trial judge nearly 15 times, because counsel did not know how to impeach a witness with prior inconsistent statements.

Ex 13. Record of Proceedings, from Hence's case -- prior appeals, etc.

Ex 14. Polygraph exam administered to Hence, by Mr. Pond, past-Vice Chair, State of Michigan Board of Forensic Polygraph Examiners (now eliminated by budget cuts).

Ex 15. Dismissal of charges, in 1983, for Raymond Gallagher, after reversal of convictions.

Ex 16. Affidavit, from Mr. Soloman, wherein Robinson reveals a secret deal he had with prosecutor, of false testimony at Hence's evidentiary hearing, in exchange for a commutation.

Ex 17. Letter from Gov., stating that a prosecutor must give approval before a commutation is O.K.ed.
