DJ DUBBZ

Growing up in the vibrancy of Midtown Manhattan, DJ Dubbz went from block parties, to mega clubs, to huge concerts filled with thousands of screaming fans. New York's eclectic pulse greatly influenced his open format DJ style which includes; Hip Hop, Latin, Reggae, House, & Top 40's. His signature high energy presence at every venue and unique combinations of genres, melodies, and scratch techniques made him a favorite among club go-ers and music lovers alike.

During his early years Dubbz interned at both Downtown Records and the International Music Center giving him his first peek into the industry. His first official broadcasting position was at John Jay College Radio as Vice President. Soon after he began headlining numerous events all over NYC and even had guest spots on AMERICAN LATINO TV and THE STYLE NETWORK.

Most recently Dubbz has been nominated for On The Grind DJ of The Year at the 2013 Latin Mixx Awards in NYC. He was also nominated last year as well as judged the 2012 Winter Music Conference DJ Spin-Off in Miami. Touring has been non stop after releasing 5 Mixtapes in the span of 2 years. From New York to Vegas, Toronto to Miami there hasn't been a crowd he couldn't move. With his schedule filling quickly and the numerous mixtape projects in the works, his eyes are set on FM Radio and touring internationally. Make sure to Keep an eye out for DJ Dubbz, as he is sure to hit a stereo, club, or stadium near you.
