Wauseon, OH 43567
P 419-337-9900

Hass Door Company 1954, Haas Door Company has been manufacturing top quality garage doors in Northwest Ohio. And because we are locally owned, our products have always had unsurpassed quality and workmanship. Simply put, when you employ quality people, you produce quality products. We call ourselves "The Haas Door Family" and that's the way we operate.

In addition to good people, you also need good materials. Through the years we've made garage doors out of wood, fiberglass, aluminum and steel. Today, depending on the model, we manufacture our doors out of aluminum or steel and offer them in R-values that lead the garage door industry. As a result, they will keep the noise and weather out of your home or business. Haas Door even offers certified wind load options up to 140 mph.

We also think choice is important, so we offer a wide variety of garage doors for homes and businesses. The range of thicknesses, widths and heights, surface treatments, colors, and options allow you to tailor our garage doors to your specific application.

Sauder Woodworking

502 Middle St
Archbold, OH 43502
P 419-446-3137

Sauder Woodworking Company has been making furniture for home, business and institutions for nearly 80 years. Headquartered in Archbold, Ohio, a small, rural town in the northwest corner of the state, Sauder Woodworking Co. is a privately-held, family-run business (third generation). Founded in 1934 by Erie Sauder, who invented ready-to-assemble furniture, the business has grown into a family of companies offering a wide range of furniture solutions for various markets. Although the company's brands and product offerings have evolved through the years, the core aspects of the business have remained unchanged. The company still holds true to the small town values of hard work, stewardship, trust and a heritage of innovation upon which it was built.

Corporate subsidiaries include: Progressive Furniture Inc., a manufacturer and importer of traditional solid wood, veneered and laminate furniture; and Sauder Manufacturing Company, a leader in church, educational, and health care seating. New market segments include: Sauder Funeral Products, a line of wood caskets and other funeral industry products; and Woodtrac, a line of wood ceilings and closet systems for residential and commercial markets.

EASTMAN & SMITH LTD.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Established 1844

The story of Eastman & Smith Ltd. began in 1844. The City of Toledo was just seven years old, with a population of fewer than 3,000 people. The Lucas County Courthouse was located in Maumee. Jesup W. Scott was Editor of The Blade. John Tyler was President of the United States, a growing nation of only twenty-six states. There was no federal income tax.

Eastman & Smith Ltd. now employs more than 150 people, including over 75 attorneys. Through the years, seven of its members have served as president of The Toledo Bar Association and two as president of The Ohio State Bar Association.

Over the years, the Firm has seen many changes. Currently our team provides legal services to both individual and corporate clients in a variety of backgrounds, including publicly-held corporations; privately-held commercial, industrial, manufacturing and service businesses of all sizes; public employers; professional practices; hospitals and related health care institutions; financial institutions; construction companies; and insurance carriers. Just as in 1844, we are committed to serving our clients to the best of our abilities.
