Mozes Weedeth

I am Mozes, Locksmith, Preacher,
Scribe & Translator who weedeth.
Here is my resume
That thou needeth.

I see weeds growing
Between rocks on your land.
I grip them strong,
And pulleth out by hand.

I weedeth.

I harbor the labor that thou needeth.
Work to do, with you I pleadeth.

I care not for money, fools,
Or any other human things.
Neither do I care to understand
What distress that brings.

Oh LORD, thy creation is large in size.
Thy work has proven great, for thou art wise.

On thine land art many rocks and stones
Like concrete sidewalks, asphalt roads,
And new construction
Where we see cones.

It's time we got together to talk about
Those weeds & things you'd rather be without.

I see a weed growing on your land in my site.
I grip it strong & hold it tight.
I grab it by the roots without any doubt.
Then I gather my strength, and pull it out.

I weedeth.

When I weedeth, my stress is reduced.
That is what I have deduced.

I prefer to rest among the grasses –
My place of refuge away from the masses.

Ref. Matthew Chapter 13

He set another parable before them, saying:

The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed of grain in his field, but while people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the good seed and went away. But when the stalks from the good seed sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared.

Then afterwards, the servants of the master of the house came and said to him:
"Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Then where have the weeds come from?"

So, he said to them:
"An enemy has done this."

Therefore the servants said to him:
"Then, do you wish that we go and pick them?"

But he said:
"No, lest while you are picking the weeds, you uproot the good grain together with them. Permit them both to grow together until the harvest; and when it is the time of harvest I will tell the harvesters:

'First gather up the weeds and tie them into bundles to burn them up, and then gather the wheat into my barn.'

Then when he left the crowds, he went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying:
"Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field."
