About Bijou Beaute

Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Natalie Shaw I am a trained Massuese & Esthetician from England. This year I have relocated to live in Marseille with my partner. After learning that working in Marseille without the language is near impossible I decided to create my own tranquil environment at home to perform treatments & to improve in my French further.

I have had over 9 years experience working as a massage therapist within luxury spas in England & Dubai UAE for brands such as Clarins, Elemis & Guinot .

So I will leave it there for now & would like to thank you all in advance for your support in the beginning of my Bijou Beaute journey!

See you soon!!

Bijou extras!!
