

Things Not to be Missed in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, the city of dreams is one of the most visited cities in the USA. Book flights to Los Angeles to experience a life full of excitement, entertainment and opportunities. While holidaying in LA, there are a lot of activities you can indulge in. Following are among the most popular ones.

Disneyland

Disneyland is the prime attractions for families visiting LA. It is strategically located in Anaheim, in the south of the city. No matter which age group you fall in, the charm of Disneyland will definitely captivate you. It was opened in July 1955 and since then it remains in the top priorities of people booking Los Angeles flights. Main highlights in the theme park are Main Street, U.S.A., Adventureland, Frontierland, Fantasyland and Tomorrowland.

Griffith Park Observatory

The famous observatory is located in Griffith Park. The popular observatory allows you to enjoy displays related to space and science. It has been added to the list of Los Angeles Historic-Cultural Monuments. Foucault Pendulum is the oldest exhibition which demonstrates the rotation of the Earth. Other notable attractions in the observatory are The Planetarium, Café at the End of the Universe and Stellar Emporium Gift Shop.

Beaches

LA is famous for its refreshing beaches as well. Whether you are looking for marine adventure or to feel the serenity of nature, book flights to Los Angeles to experience an incredible beach holiday.

- El Matador Beach

If you are on a romantic holiday, El Matador Beach needs to be your choice. The secluded beach has rocky shores and magnificently clear waters. Spend a perfect romantic evening while having a sunset dinner in the hidden coves.

- Venice Beach

It is among the most popular beaches in the city. The beach is known for its Ocean Front Walk where you'd come across several street performers such as turbaned guitar players, roller blades, chainsaw jugglers, bodybuilders and folk artists.

- Manhattan Beach

The beach is known for its class. At the beach, you would find luxurious cars. Like Venice Beach, several movies and TV series have been shot here. Beach volleyball and bodysurfing can be enjoyed in the area. Another highlight on the beach is aquarium located at the end the pier.