ALTERNATIVE SPACES & OPEN STUDIOS

OPEN STUDIOS

NEWBURGH ART SUPPLY 1

Gerardo Castro (Painting) (Collage) (3 Fl. Studio)
gerardocastroart.com
Oil paintings and mixed media work inspired by Afro-Cuban religions and Spirituality as well as the dominant cultural fantasies about masculinity and sexuality.

Michael X. Rose (Painting)
michaelxrose.com
My paintings are either a glimpse of the eternal horror that awaits us lurking from beyond the grave or snatches of terrestrial Beauty as we shuffle off this mortal coil.

TERAN STUDIO 2

Amanda J. Light (Painting) (Multimedia)
A focus on creative processes I explore the application of medium, allowing the material to evolve independent of my intentions.

Christy Sokalski (Painting)
csokalski.com
I am inspired by nature and the brilliance of simplicity. My vision as an artist is to use luminosity & color to establish a compelling perspective on my subject matter; Approaching natural beauty with spontaneity.

Collin Resch (Painting) (Multimedia)
Teran Studio (3rd fl)
119 Broadway
Woodwork and mixed media are used to create 'Out of this World' landscapes.

Donna Cavaccini–DeStaso (Photography)
These photos are a different view of the Hudson Valley

Erika Joy Walker (Painting)
My work serves to remind us of the intrinsic beauty found in the universe. It does this through vibrant depiction of naturally occurring patterns, which transpire in the process of evolution.

Justine T. La Mantia (Painting)
Although greatly varied in terms of styles and materials, my work is consistently characterized by meditative yet painstaking attention to detail, as well as a celebration of the physical properties of the materials being used, regardless of the materials being used.

Meech Borrello (Painting)
meechborrello.com
Channeling otherworldly beings, animals, and insects with a distinct and self-taught style that blooms with color.

Rich Hanlon (Drawing)
rhpaintnpencil.com
Being a completely self-taught artist, I am inspired and learn from studying the masters, this is a charcoal series dedicated to that inspiration.

Stephanie Eichelberger (Painting) (Drawing)
DreamsCreateReality.com
Original contemporary surreal paintings and drawings with most recent works focusing on animal symbolism and the natural world and its connection with human psyche.

Will Teran (Painting) (Drawing) (Sculpture)
My work is a concentration on the act of mark making. A raw personal speech is the center of attention delivered by a wild abstraction of color fields, cryptic iconography/ text and anatomical study.

ATLAS INDUSTRIES 3

Ann Stratton (Photography)
annstratton.com
I find interest and beauty in the things most people would pass by. There are always surprises in the minute details of nature when you look close.

Bruno Gordon Krauchthaler (Painting) (Collage)
brunokrauchthaler.com
I create images on canvas with photographs and oil paint about what I am thinking about.

Erica Hauser (Painting) (Drawing)
ericahauser.com
Oil or acrylic paintings to create a sense of memory or nostalgia, a vintage aesthetic, an appreciative observation of the ordinary.

Julie Lindell (Video)
julielindell.org
Julie Lindell will be showing her ongoing documentary project, "Numbers," while inviting participation and conversation about femininity and its numerical value.

Kate Ferriter (Painting)
klfdesigns.biz
Urban landscape paintings in oil, watercolor and gouache.

Stan Woodard (Sound Installation)
stanwoodard.com
Discrete Audio Positions is a site specific sound installation offering visitors incongruous pairings of sound and space.

THE FOUNDRY 4

Marieken Cochius (Drawing) (Felts)
artnews.org/Mariekencochius
Her lines move across the paper like ribbons of lightning that look to be cutting through the moody cloud of a storm.

Rachel Weidkam (Painting) (Printmaking)
rachelweidkam.com
Realist paintings and printmaking based on the human figure, local landscape and imaginary landscape

HUDSON RIVER BINDERY 5

HudsonRiverBindery.com
Hand book bindings shop tour, including demonstrations and hands-on projects

188 LIBERTY STREET 6

Carol Flaitz (Painting)
carolfloit.com
Epic landscapes beneath the microscope have inspired my production of multi-media landscapes that provoke profound questions regarding our relationship to scale and scientific discovery.

Keith Nieto (Assemblage)
Keith!! Inspired by Classic Film

Ruben Mike Rivera (Drawing)
Meticulously detailed drawings made with graphite.

Terri Vargas (Painting)
terrivargas.com
Terri! Yours – in – Abstraction

THE HOPE CENTER 7

Susan Mangam (Painting)
ecclesia-newburgh.org
A few years ago I sat on a rock looking down into the sea, and for, an instant, I seemed to see into the very heart of Creation . . .

HEALING ARTS STUDIO 8

Alexandros Megas (Mixed Media)
megasart.com
The works are an inner optical translation, a mapping of the soul, an attempt to decode the subconscious or even the super-conscious self.

NEWBURGH FREE LIBRARY 9

Gita Nádas (Painting)
facebook.com/GitaNadasArt
Representational oil paintings capture emotional connection in a loose painterly style leaning toward abstraction with subtle use of color, pattern and deliberate composition.

SPACE CREATE 10

Joe Pimentel (Painting) (Drawing)
joepimentelart.com
I find myself overwhelmed by the limitless possibilities that can be explored and realized as our souls gradually evolve towards a higher level of potential.

JUDY THOMAS 11

(Sculptural Installation)
BARGE WATCH*
