Trade Analysis

As of Week 9

Let's all keep watch and see what ends up being "fair"

(Even though the vote may have simply been lost due to Mr. Hatfield - as he admitted he didn't even look at the trade but just thought it would be funny to vote against me given Art &amp; Chris's reactions haha).

Trade 1

Primetime Fine: 17 (Denard) + 2 (Brown) + 0 (Ryan) = +19

Leader of Minions: 28.5 (Edeleman) + 0 (Bush) + -9.5 (Rivers) = +19

Differential = 0

Trade 2

Primetime Fine: 17 (Denard) + 2 (Brown) + 0 (Ryan) + Edelman (28.5) = +47.5

Leader of Minions: 0 (Bush) + -9.5 (Rivers) = -9.5

Differential = 57 points in favor of Primetime Fine

Thats a bit skewed.

I voted against you because you broke your own rule and Arthur called you out on it.

Read those statements over again...you'll see nothing is skewed about the actual point of the statement.

If you'd like me to retract that you thought it was funny or the insinuation that all you thought was that it was funny, fine. But you sir did not place your vote in the right spirit for which the vote was intended (and you were not the only one).

Trade 1

Primetime Fine: 35 (Denard) + 2 (Brown) + 15.5 (Ryan) = +52.5

Leader of Minions: 28.5 (Edeleman) + 2.5 (Bush) + -9.5 (Rivers) = +21.5

Differential = 31 points in favor of Primetime

Trade 2

Primetime Fine: 35 (Denard) + 2 (Brown) + 15.5 (Ryan) + 28.5 (Edelman) = +81

Leader of Minions: 2.5 (Bush) + -9.5 (Rivers) = -7

Differential = 88 points in favor of Primetime Fine

...clearly you're all a good judge of what is fair...

The only thing that makes me feel better is neither of us would have won or lost yet based on the first vote being denied...yet

WINS DIFFERENTIAL:

Primetime Fine: +/- 0

Leader of Minions: +/- 0

...O Wait...Primetime might have won this week if he would've played the players he got via trade (as he lost 15.5 points this week not playing Brown)...making the point differential in favor of Primetime by 104.5 points (just saying...100+ points in 2 weeks...#CMONPEOPLE)

Clearly I was joking and exploited how passionate you are by evidence of your weekly "Trade Analysis" write ups...

And...you deleting this post "twice" further proves my point.
