FALLEN THEORY

Fallen Theory was formed on August 1st, 2010. With a fan base, accolades and big plans all spurring from the Roseburg-based quintet, the band continues to grow both in artistry while gaining healthy regional popularity.

Fallen Theory quickly gained the attention of the public through intense performances, sold out shows and engaging the crowd in a frenzy that leaves their fans, the Nephilim, begging for more.

Based out of Eugene, Oregon, Fallen Theory has performed throughout the majority of the Pacific Northwest. Fallen Theory has one of the largest, extremely loyal and ever-growing fan-bases in Oregon.

Fallen Theory completely self-produced their debut album "Ghost". Along with their debut album, all of the artwork, official website (fallentheory.com), design and fabrication of all their merchandise and promotion materials aide in their success in the music industry.

When it comes to DIY bands, Fallen Theory stands tall at the head of the pack.

The music speaks for itself. It is powerful, melodic, ethereal, heavy, meaningful and everything in between. This is a full sound that is guaranteed to grasp the attention of fans from all genres of music.
