

Take A Leaf Out Of This

Kale chips, a baklava hotline and (chef) Floyd's latest track. A ton of treats in our crossword that connects to this week's bpb stories.

Across

- 3 & 8 Across. Popular stand-up comedian who will be performing at NSCI in March (5,8)
- 6. According to Jasmine Kaur, kale has more ____ than beef (4)
- 8. See 3
- 9. Ground nut used in Goksel Patisserie's baklava filling (9)
- 10. Car featuring in one of Shreya Katuri's favourite matchbox designs (4)
- 11. Rich Robinson who will be performing at The Mahindra Blues Festival this weekend, founded this famous rock band (3,5,6)
- 14. See 14 Down
- 17. The Bombay Canteen's Chorizo Pav Bunny Chow is inspired by Indian immigrants in ____ who would fashion bread into food containers (5,6)
- 18. One of the stores caterer Joyce Arora sources her produce from (7)

Down

- 1. The Dangerous Book for Boys at Trilogy teaches the reader how to make one of these (8)
- 2. O.M.O in Bandra sells jewellery designed by ____ (8)
- 4. Jasmine Kaur of The Green Snack Co is a fan of these Western kale chips (10)
- 5. This cocktail on The Bombay Canteen menu is a combination of Old Monk and ginger ale (4,7)
- 7. Movie directed by Richard Linklater which is expected to do well at the Oscars (7)
- 12. Goksel means ____ in Turkish (8)
- 13. Shreya plans to launch a ____ version of her matchbox design feed (4)
- 14 Down & 14 Across. We mistook them for sari petticoats at O.M.O (7,5)
- 15. Trilogy at Lower Parel allows you to pick your own library card design out of ____ patterns (6)
- 16. One of the spices Joyce Arora's Erechi Olithaye is seasoned with (6)

brown paper bag

