HOW TO USE

Take your bunch of carrots- choose one and swish it around your bath (holding onto the green leaves at the top), pop it on the side of the bath to dry and then reuse it again next time.

EASTER REUSABLE BUBBLE BARS

Bunch Of Carrots

Dig for victory

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

A bunch of carrots for fruity, uplifting bubbles and plenty of baths! Swish a carrot around your bath to enjoy soft clouds of bubbles and tropical-scented water. Although these reusable bubble bars may do a convincing carrot impression; their fragrance definitely gives them away: Bubbly clouds of buchu, lemon and grapefruit oils revive the senses.

GOOD TO KNOW

The Carrot reusable bubble bar first arrived in Lush shops in 2013. Co-founder Mark liked the idea that people would come in and say 'What's that?' and we could say 'It's a Carrot!' Now we can say to our inquisitive customers 'It's a Bunch Of Carrots' instead!

KEY INGREDIENTS

EASTER SOAP

Carrot Soap

Do you carrot all?

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

Looks like a carrot, smells like a refreshing tropical fruit juice.

Get rooting for this joyous orange soap, complete with leaping white bunny in the centre. Uplifting bergamot and Sicilian lemon oils mean nothing can nibble away at your happiness.

This giant carrot is our limited edition Easter soap. Made with moisturising carrot seed oil in the orange part and skin-softening Fair Trade cocoa butter in the white, this luxurious blend of ingredients will leave you feeling as soft as the Easter Bunny himself.

Carrot oil will soften the surface of the skin as it is cleansed by the action of the soap base ... and we thought bunnies would approve of its use.

GOOD TO KNOW

As of November 2014 we only use 100% fully traceable single origin Fair Trade cocoa butter.

This soap contains Fair Trade organic cocoa butter from the Fundopo cooperative in the Dominican Republic. This is the same cocoa butter that we use across most of our range.

The creative team wanted to ensure that each slice is as much of a delight to behold as the whole soap. Bring a touch of theatre to the shop floor by slicing this giant carrot, revealing a white rabbit leaping through every piece!

EASTER BATH BOMB MELT

Golden Egg

Sunny side up

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

How do you like your legs in the morning? We like ours soaking in honey-toffee scented molten gold, packed full of Fair Trade Colombian cocoa butter! Product inventor Dan was originally inspired by chocolate cream eggs and after a few different attempts he reversed the original design and created this, which is a bath bomb coated in a bath melt; soft on the outside, hard on the inside. Because of its luxurious bath melt outer layer, when you first drop this into the bath it will sink down, then bob back to the surface as the bath bomb centre is revealed. Its glitzy exterior will be sure to catch the customer's eye, and then once they have a whiff of the delicious honey-toffee fragrance they'll be powerless to resist! All the joy of a chocolate Easter egg, but without the calories (and the packaging).

GOOD TO KNOW

The outer shell of the egg is made with the cocoa butter from the Peace Community in San Jose, Colombia. We buy the beans directly from them and they are processed to make the butter in Europe.

It's Fair Trade, and deodorised – which allows us to use it in the Golden Egg and not have its scent overpower the fragrance. We also use this cocoa butter in our Peace massage bar and Charity Pot body lotion.

Read more about the Community here: <https://www.lush.co.uk/article/peace-pioneers>

Last year the Golden Egg was so popular that the product creation team had an easy decision to bring it back; it did eggcellently!

Inventor Daniel chose to use Peace cocoa butter in The Golden Egg to inspire conversations about where cocoa butter comes from. During the Easter period, chocolate eggs which contain cocoa butter from untraceable sources, potentially involving child labour and non-fairly trading practices are widely consumed.

By working with the Peace Community directly we can be sure of the processes involved in creating this beautiful ingredient, and we're able to pass on the benefits and the messages direct to our customers. So let's talk about cocoa butter!

EASTER BATH BOMB

Fluffy Egg

Un oeuf is un oeuf!

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

Pretty in pink, this bomb is better than any chocolate egg. The smell of candy floss will satiate even the sweetest tooth.

This limited edition egg shaped bath bath bomb is fragranced with an old Lush favourite, Candy Fluff – hence the name Fluffy Egg. For those who never got to try Candy Fluff dusting powder....think Snow Fairy!

Fluffy Egg was created by co-founder Mo some years ago, when she finally gave in to requests for an Easter egg shaped bath bomb. It has been so popular with our customers that it's come back year after year.

If anyone loves the sweet scent of Mmmelting Marshmallow Moment bath melt, or is missing Snow Fairy shower gel then make sure they pop this in their Easter basket!

GOOD TO KNOW

Mo invented the bath bomb back in the days of Cosmetics to Go. To find out the full story of how she invented these fizzy, fragrant and water softening great balls of bicarb, turn to pages 37 & 38 of the Cosmetic to Go book.

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

Eggceptionally good, sweet scented bath times – with a special treat hidden inside! When you crack open this giant egg, you'll discover a mini bunny or chick bath bomb hidden in the centre! Fragranced with a beautiful blend of grapefruit, and lemon oils, and Fair Trade vanilla absolute. When co-founder Mark first smelled this, the scent of the vanilla reminded him of chocolate – perfect for an Easter egg.

There are many reasons to be cheerful about these eggstra special bath bombs; there are three baths worth of fizz to be had and there are two colours to choose from (or if you can't decide, you could just get both!).

GOOD TO KNOW

They also rattle when you give them a shake – so you can build up eggcitement and anticipation wondering what's inside.

EASTER BATH BOMB

Hoppity Poppity

Pop Art

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

Sometimes you're up and sometimes you're down. When you're down, bounce back with this fantastically fizzy little bunny. Drop in the bath for a fresh, herbal experience that will leave you feeling bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. Popping candy adds a little fun.

Hidden inside this enchanting white rabbit is a pink center for soft pink bath water, and popping candy coated in green lustre for a poppity good time. Sit back and listen to the bunny hop and pop around your bath tub, whilst enjoying the beautiful fresh fragrance.

GOOD TO KNOW

The perfume for this bath bomb was based of a fragrance that Mark made for his sister Jo as part of Gorilla Perfume Volume 3. The fresh blend of lavender absolute, lime oil and violet leaf absolute, may remind you of fresh green grass (just like rabbits love). It shows the high quality perfumes that are part of our fresh handmade cosmetics, after all, we believe in filling the world with perfume!

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

Wash with a chunk of the rainbow to melt your troubles like lemon drops. Behold this spectacular rainbow: with six different colours, you may get a couple of different colours in every slice. As well as the beautiful colours, you'll see the snowflake lustre sparkling throughout the soap, making this look as wonderful as it smells. Fragranced with a new scent, called 'rainbow' it's an uplifting blend of mandarin, neroli and rose to help leave you happy and energised. This soap is great for shop floor theatre, cutting colourful slices fresh for our customers. It's also made with a palm free soap base and is mpg free!

GOOD TO KNOW

When designing this soap Michelle from the labs was inspired by the bright and fun artwork of Pip & Pop.

Pip & Pop grew from a collaboration between two artists - Nicole Andrejevic and Tanya Schultz. Using fine sand, sugar, origami, plastic figures, glitter, lights and found objects they create intricate, gloriously technicoloured worlds.

Spring Gifts 2015

These gifts were originally created for as part of a larger 'White Day' range for Japan. The theme was 'Park Life', a lot of inspiration came from a trip that Nicole and Suzie took to Japan in April 2014. Along with some Japanese design influence from artists such as Yayoi Kusami and Hisui Siguri. There are 2 returning gifts from the range last year which were best sellers, these are Hello Sunshine and Strawberries and Cream.

GIFT CONTENT

Honey Bee bath bomb

Relax with this soothing soak containing honey, aloe vera and rhassoul mud.

Fairly Traded Honey shampoo

For gorgeously soft, sexy shiny hair, who better than the birds and the bees to help us? Fairly Traded honey makes up more than half of this shampoo to replenish moisture and add shine, and there's also beeswax and lots of floral essential oils to bring to mind a summer meadow. Honey really is the bees knees, which is why we've used plenty here: it's self preserving, and a natural humectant, which helps your hair to attract and retain moisture.

WHY CHOOSE THIS ONE?

For the ones that love honey so much that want they want to have it from head to toe. A very special spring gift, featuring our Fairly Traded Honey shampoo with Zambian honey. This particular honey was chosen for it's amazing sustainability standards and for working alongside the nature to make sure the normal workings of the hives continue. The Zambian beekeepers do not have any control over the bees and simply provide them with a home made of bark suspended from a tree, collecting only half of the honey present and only harvesting at the height of the one out of two summers.

GOOD TO KNOW

This is designed as a replacement for Mr Bumble, so busy bees out there can get a Knot-Wrap with honey themed treats inside. What's different is that this gift features Fairly Traded Honey shampoo, as a way of getting this lovely Shampoo into a gift and introducing more customers to our haircare range.
