

Helena Christensen and friends request the pleasure of your company at Original Music Workshop's Spring Gala

EXPERIENCE IN THE RUINS VOL. 2

An evening to celebrate the arrival of Original Music Workshop's new home, National Sawdust, and to reveal some of our newest discoveries in music

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 2015

COCKTAIL RECEPTION | 6:30 p.m.

DINNER AND DISCOVERY | 7:30 p.m.

PIONEER WORKS | 159 PIONEER STREET | BROOKLYN

PERFORMANCES

curated by composer Paola Prestini, Creative & Executive Director featuring Philip Glass and violinist Tim Fain musicians from the New York Philharmonic choreographer Reggie (Regg Roc) Gray vocalists Theo Bleckmann & Helga Davis Oh Land instrument installations created by Mark Stewart surprise guests from opera and rock

FOOD

created by National Sawdust's James Beard Award-winning Chef, Patrick Connolly

AFTER PARTY

*with Brandon Stosuy (Pitchfork) Caleb Braaten (Sacred Bones Records)
Robin Carolan (Tri Angle Records)
& special guest DJ*

GALA COMMITTEE

Honoring the individuals who have built National Sawdust from the ruins up

Councilman Stephen Levin, Honorary Chair

Adam Abeshouse	Kevin Dolan	Harvey Mogenson
Dan Breen	Randy Ezratty	Jill Steinberg
Jean Pierre Chesse	Chris Grymes	R. Adam Smith
Helena Christensen	Susan Hermann	Jeremy Turner
Rick D'Avino	Richard Kessler	Peter Zusanp
Valerie Dillon	Roger Krulak

GALA YOUTH COMMITTEE

*Nicole Gary Daniel Mitura
Jacob Marshall Andrew Trepp
Natalia Schwien*

Opening October 2015, Original Music Workshop / National Sawdust is a non-profit based in Williamsburg, Brooklyn that provides state-of-the-art facilities and support to a wide range of composers, musicians, and emerging talent. Focused on progressive, genre-spanning programs, the composer-driven nonprofit provides a space to experiment, collaborate, develop, perform, record, and broadcast new works.

WWW.O-M-W.ORG/GALA