

INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

IAC CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

Name

The name of this organization shall be the International Advisory Committee (IAC).

ARTICLE II.

Objective

The objective of the International Advisory Committee shall:

Section 1. Be the voice of the International Student Organizations at the University of Oklahoma, Norman campus.

Section 2. Serve as the umbrella organization for the International Student Organizations at the University of Oklahoma.

Section 3. Organize and facilitate various intercultural, social, political and intramural events among the member international student organizations.

Section 4. Promote and increase the awareness of the international community at the University of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE III.

Membership

Section 1. There shall be two types of membership within the International Advisory Committee: Full and Associate.

A. Full membership status in the International Advisory Committee of the University of Oklahoma shall be limited to the registered University of Oklahoma Student Association (UOSA) International Student Organizations at the University of Oklahoma.

B. Associate membership status in the International Advisory Committee of the University of Oklahoma shall be limited to University of Oklahoma International Student Organizations who do not meet the UOSA registration requirements.

Section 2. An International Student Organization shall be defined as:

- A. An organization created to promote the culture of a given country, area or region.
- B. An organization created to assist students of that country, area or region.
- C. An organization created to promote or assist international students from any and all countries.
- D. Minority-American student organizations may also be members of IAC, pending compliance with Article III, Section 3, sub-section E.

Section 3. International Advisory Committee Recognition

A. An International Student Organization (Full or Associate) must register with IAC annually at the beginning of the fall semester.

B. The IAC Executive Committee may withdraw membership based on but not limited to the following reasons:

- 1. Failure to recognize to register with IAC.

1. Fine Arts

2. Geography

3. Anthropology

4. Student Life/Student Affairs

D. There will be THREE awards for the three best performances.

E. The judges will remain anonymous until the Eve of Nations show; their names will be recognized in the program booklet and the winner of the best cultural performance awards will be announced by the judges. Judges may not serve on the panel for 2 consecutive years. Judging shall be done on an individual basis.

F. After selecting the judges, the IAC Executive Committee will hold a conference with the judges to clarify judging procedures and criteria.

G. The same piece cannot be performed by any organization in Eve of Nations on consecutive years, and any winning piece (include all award receivers) will not be eligible for the award for the next 5 years.

H. The criteria for judging each performance:

I. Participating organizations will submit a synopsis of a maximum of 100 words of the significance of the performance for the judges' reference.

J. Each performance must adhere to the time limit given by the IAC Executive Committee/EON Performance Committee.

K. All results will be collected and kept by the IAC Executive Committee at the end of Eve of Nations. If they so desire, representatives of an organization may review only the results of their own performance. This must be done in the International Advisory Committee Office, and at least 1 IAC Executive Committee Member must be present during the review.

L. Performers should be students, staff, or faculty members of the University of Oklahoma. Faculty members and staff participating in the performances must not belong to the same departments as that year's judges.

M. IAC Executive Committee members may perform in Eve of Nations, except those members involved in judge selection.

N. Judicial Board advisors may perform in Eve of Nations

Section 2. . Most Active Organization Recognition

A. The goal of the Most Active Organization Recognition is to distinguish those organizations that proactively interact with other IAC organizations as well as participated in their events.

B. The International Advisory Council will select THREE (3) organizations they believe deserve to receive this recognition. If the president of any organization cannot be present at the day of the selection a member of his executive council may participate in the selection upon presenting an authorized proxy form.

C. The three organizations with the most votes will be announced at Eve of Nations (EON). The name of the winning recipient's association will be engraved in a plaque that will be displayed in a location yet to be determined.

D. The IAC Judicial Board, under the presence of the IAC President and IAC advisor, will tabulate the votes.

E. Presidents MUST NOT vote for their own organization, violators of this mandate will not be eligible for the award for the next two (2) years.

F. The recommended criteria for selecting the most Active Organization should be taken in consideration by the voters:

1. Was the president present at your cultural night?
2. Did the members of the organization assist and/or participate in your events?
3. Did the president assist and/or participate in IAC events?
4. Did the members of the organization assist and/or participate in IAC events?

ARTICLE II.

Amendment of the Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended at any International Advisory Committee meeting. Only the International Advisory Council (made up of the presidents of member organizations) may vote on a proposed amendment. An amendment will only be adopted if it receives two-thirds of the vote in favor of adopting it. Any proposed amendment must have been submitted during the regularly-scheduled International Advisory Committee meeting before the meeting in which the amendment is to be voted upon.
