

Conquer

FAQ

What is Conquer?

Conquer is the Debit Card that Builds You Credit.

How does it work?

Every time you make a purchase, we check to see if you have the funds available. If you do, we extend the line of credit and immediately deduct the funds from your account.

You build credit without ever going into debt. It's that simple.

Do I need to open a bank account with Conquer?

No, you can use your existing checking account. If you don't have one, or want a new account, we can create one with you.

Conquer

FAQ

How do I get my Conquer Card?

Sign up on our website for early access. Once you register and receive your card, activate it and start building your credit seamlessly.

Why do I need a Conquer Card?

Being credit worthy is essential to being financially independent. You need credit to get a house, loan, car, or apartment! Now it's possible to build credit without the risk of debt.

Does Conquer have fees?

No. Since you can only spend what's in your bank account there are no late or overdraft fees.

Why did you create Conquer?

6 in 10 millennials don't have a credit card and therefore are not building credit for their future!

[bankrate.com]

Conquer

FAQ

So how do you make money?

We split the merchant service fee with our partnering bank.

What's next?

We will be introducing digital products focused on promoting saving and investing.

Who are you?

We are a group of four Engineering Students from Columbia University and Drexel University passionate about creating a better future with smarter financial products.

How can I contact you?

Please email us at hello@tryconquer.com :)