

Dear Angela,

I'm having a terrible holiday on Crete. I shouldn't have chosen to stay on that island. I should have gone to Turkey instead. The weather is awful. Yesterday it rained a lot and was very cold. I really want to get a suntan but it's not possible because the sun never comes out! The hotel isn't very nice either-it's small and dirty and the staff are very rude and unfriendly. I would like to complain to the resident or the manager but they are never here. I feel like going home tomorrow.

Yours,

Jenny

---

Angela Schmidt

---

Zichzachweg 17

---

9875 Tihidorf

---

Switzerland

---