

Junior Creative Content Manager (Fashion)

---

Job Title	Junior Creative Content Manager
Business	Start-Up in Berlin (Fashion Mobile-Commerce)
Employment Category	Full-time internship (3-6 months; as of August/September 2015)
Salary	negotiable

---

Company Description	AMAZE - is a startup in the inspirational fashion mobile-commerce space. We are currently a team of 14 people with different backgrounds in fashion, journalism, design, technology, entrepreneurship and business administration. In collaboration with one of the biggest European online retailers as our key partner, we launched our product in June 2015. Within a few days we were honored by Apple as the “#1 Best New App”. Keeping this momentum, we are all looking forward to exciting times to come. The objective of AMAZE is to become the most inspirational and fun shopping app in Europe.
----------------------------	--

---

Job Description	Are you a creative and inspirational person that would love to have its hobby as a job? Do you enjoy hands-on working in a highly creative and dynamic environment – in the fashion mobile-commerce space? Do you like taking on challenges and joining a team to build a startup from the very beginning? Do you feel comfortable working in a wide range of tasks including conceptual, editorial and operational work? Do you want to work in a great team with the leading German fashion bloggers, entrepreneurs and investors? Do you feel comfortable collaborating with one of the largest online fashion retailers in Europe? And most importantly do you want to have fun and a great experience and learning curve in a wide range of fashion and business related topics?
------------------------	--

If the answer to these questions is yes then we are looking exactly for you!!

Responsibilities We are looking for a creative and inspirational person that wants to join our creative content management team. As a Junior Creative Content Manager you would have the following responsibilities:

- Conception and creation of daily fashion collages
- Conception and implementation of weekly newsletter for our blogger partners
- Content management and curation for the product portfolio of our retail partners
- Preparation and participation in daily meetings
- Preparation and participation in creative workshops to improve the current solutions, e.g. mobile application, newsletter, working mode, etc.
- Collaboration with a wide range of team members and partners, e.g. fashion bloggers, designers, other content managers, founders, managers, our technology team, retail partners, investors, etc.

Besides the learnings and experience you gain from your responsibilities we have more to offer in this internship:

- Supervision, mentoring, and coaching in fashion and business related topics via the leading German fashion bloggers and entrepreneurs (individually organized)
- Introduction to the fashion scene via our network and wide range of connections

Experience Requirements and Skills

- Passion for creativity, e.g. fashion, art, design, etc.
- Strong experience with Adobe Suite
- Entrepreneurial spirit
- Passion for personnel development & getting to the next level
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Ability to work independently on a wide range of assignments
- Fluent in English (written and spoken) – German a plus
- Basic knowledge of e-commerce and mobile-commerce

Preferred Education (no final degree required)

Fashion Design, Design, Art, Journalism, Communication Studies, Cultural Studies, other creative degrees/courses

Contact Details jobs@theamazeapp.com