HOW TO PREPARE

Some tips to prepare and help you get the best out of the photo session.

Appearance is key in a photo shoot. When you're preparing for your session, ask yourself about the general attire of people in your line of work. What kind of image do you want to portray? If you're looking for a professional LinkedIn photo, you're going to want to wear a suit, even if your current job title doesn't demand you wear one. When you're looking to climb the corporate ladder or switch careers, the more professional the photo, the better.

If you're looking for a professional bio picture for a business website, Twitter or a Facebook photo you'll want to dress more professionally, while appearing slightly more casual. A jacket or blazer can still work wonders, but consider whom you need to address first.

BUSINESS HEADSHOT

Ladies

Dark jackets photograph well, but a solid color blouse or a sweater could be just fine. Make sure to bring your make-up and a hairbrush for touchups.

Gentlemen

We recommend dark blue or black suits. A matching tie would look great even if you normally don't wear it. Solid colors are better for pictures. Make sure all clothes are clean and ironed. Clean shave or a beard trim is essential. Try to do it right before your session or feel free to do it at our studio. Bring your hairbrush for touchups.
