About Us & You

Cocktails 'n Canvas is a new concept. It's for people who don't consider themselves artists or creative in any way. Are you looking for something memorable and novel? Are you looking for a new way to socialize ?

Cocktails 'n Canvas is a fun night of socializing with friends and having a relaxing, creative time. People who have never painted before create their own masterpieces while sipping a cocktail (or two).

No experience is necessary! You will join 25+ like-minded, adventurous people in local bars and pubs, where you will follow the step-by-step instructions of a master local artist from blank canvas to masterpiece.

You may not have picked up a brush since elementary school or have a creative bone in your body, no worries, we foster a fun, low-stress environment where at the end of your 2-hour event, you might just surprise yourself with the painting you created and have some great memories to go along with it!

Reasons to go to a Cocktails 'n Canvas painting party!

- I'm bored of movie night!
- Can we find something different to do?
- I need a night out that's really fun, interesting and cool! A few drinks won't hurt either!
- Our relationship needs something!
- When's the last time I actually created something with my hands?

Conversations overheard at Cocktails 'n Canvas painting parties!

- I can't believe I did this, when are we coming back!
- I met a really nice person, we're going to connect again!
- We need to come again with so and so and so and so...
- Something inside of me has changed, I just feel happier! (this could also be the wine talking)

The Concept

Cocktails 'n Canvas is a totally new concept. It's about creativity and social connections. People who have never painted before, create their own masterpiece while sipping a cocktail (or two..). This combination of painting and socializing has been sculpted into a profitable business platform. Artists and teachers earn money showing people their passion for painting in a hands-on and fun way. Venues can fill unused, under-utilized space and bring customers in on slow nights, and this all happens by using one unified platform that connects all the dots.

Become a Cocktails 'n Canvas Venue

A Cocktails 'n Canvas event typically brings in 25-40 people into your bar/pub on a slow night of the week to paint, drink and eat. We'll take care of all the details. We'll transform your under-used space into a regular event full of painting (and paying) customers, at no charge to you. Think of it as a recurring reservation on your slowest nights.

There's no mess for you to clean up - we use non-toxic, acrylic paints (student paint) that can easily be cleaned with water. Our only requirement is that the event area is not carpeted.
