

YOU'RE INVITED TO THE FIRST EVER
RED TENT TEMPLE
AT HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE!

Who: People who have menstruated and are okay with forms of address typically reserved for women in the space

What: A sacred space that offers women a state of beingness rather than our continual doing mode. The Red Tent Temple is a safe space for women to take our inner momentum, that feeling like the time is now and come forward with everything we are as women and give us a place to incubate, dream, slow down, and not have an agenda or plan.

When: Monday, September 28th, 5-9pm. A delicious organic dinner will be served!

Where: Spiritual Life Center (Donut 5 second floor, in Greenwich)
