

WORK SESSION:

Addressing Systemic Barriers to Employment

ECHO and the Reentry Roundtable are co-hosting a work session to begin the process of addressing the systemic barriers that impact the ability of formerly incarcerated and/or homeless individuals to gain employment. Work session attendees will:

- » Identify the current services available, eligibility criteria, and areas of focus
- » Explore who and what is left out of the current system
- » Identify systemic issues which need to be addressed

WHEN:

Tuesday, Sept. 29th
9:00am-12:00pm

This session is open to all program managers of workforce and job training providers.

WHERE:

Travis County Administrative Bldg.
700 Lavaca in Multipurpose Rm. B

RSVP:

Spots are limited. RSVP to jadeline@woollardnichols.com
