After a commercial break, a Fox News Alert offers “...A massive manhunt underway for the killers of a 30 year law enforcement veteran...The 52-year-old father of four was shot early Tuesday today and later died at the scene. Police say the suspects are considered armed and dangerous since they stripped the lieutenant of his gun and other equipment...Lieutenant Gliniewicz is the fourth law enforcement officer gunned down in the United States in the past week.”

Megan Kelly video: “...massive manhunt after the execution of yet another U.S. police officer.” Video of the search on site. Reports of frightened community members. Testimonials of how Gliniewicz is a great guy and officer. Then ties story into a police shooting in Texas, how Black Lives Matter is stirring up hatred against police, and, finally, President Obama should speak out against Black Lives Matter and should send a delegation to Gliniewicz's funeral. The final 2/3rds of the show was then about how Obama has failed to support police.

Scores of investigators scour northern Illinois for 3 suspects wanted in officer's death

<http://www.foxnews.com/us/2015/09/02/scores-investigators-scour-northern-illinois-for-3-suspects-wanted-in-officer/>

“As a small northern Illinois community mourned a popular veteran police officer who was fatally shot while on duty, authorities scoured the area overnight in search of three men wanted in his slaying.

Helicopters were to aid about 100 officers early Wednesday as the manhunt in and around the village of Fox Lake for the suspects the fatal shooting of Lt. Charles Joseph Gliniewicz stretched toward a second day, a sheriff's office spokesman said.

Authorities from across the state and region poured into the village about 60 miles north of Chicago after the shooting Tuesday morning, some wearing tactical gear and toting high-powered rifles. Federal agencies, SWAT teams and 48 police dogs assisted in the search for the suspects, Lake County Sheriff's Office spokesman Sgt. Christopher Covelli said.

Officers could be seen taking up positions on rooftops and along railroad tracks, scanning the terrain with rifle scopes and binoculars. Others leaned out of helicopters with weapons at the ready. Residents were urged to stay indoors, and schools were put on lockdown.

Is there an epidemic of violence against police in America?

<http://www.foxnews.com/transcript/2015/09/02/is-there-epidemic-violence-against-police-in-america/>

The O'Reilly Factor: “Some believe that's in response to a number of black men being shot by the cops. Bexar County, Texas there is a video showing 41-year-old Gilbert Flores being shot to death by two police officers. The cops say, Flores was armed but no weapon was seen in the video. That doesn't mean anything of course. And that kind of incident is seized upon Black Lives Matter and other radical groups to demonize the police. Thus, we have open season on the cops.

Today in Illinois 52-year-old Police Lieutenant Joe Gliniewicz shot and killed in the Chicago suburban Fox Lake. The lieutenant was a 32-year veteran of the Fox Lake Department and father of four children. His killer still at large, police are looking for three suspects, two white men, one black...Do you believe that the Black Lives Matter crew and other radicals are igniting violence against cops?”

Hilarious interview where O'Reilly doesn't get his way with his guests so he does his interruption shtick.

Thousands are still in procession at the officer's funeral. Meanwhile, "Lake County coroner Dr. Thomas Rudd said Wednesday that while he has determined the cause of Gliniewicz's death, he needs the findings of the Lake County Major Crime Task Force to rule on its nature. 'I don't know the manner of death yet, whether it was a homicide, suicide or an accident,' Rudd said."

Lt. Charles Joseph Gliniewicz shot twice, report says

<http://www.foxnews.com/us/2015/09/10/lt-charles-joseph-gliniewicz-shot-twice-report-says/>

With funeral video in the background, "Rudd also said that "material" had been taken from Gliniewicz's hands and the task force is in the process of determining whether there was gunshot residue.

"This is a difficult case because we don't have any evidence of how this happened, how this bullet got into this officer," Rudd told Fox News.

Gliniewicz radioed to a dispatcher that he was chasing three suspects – a black male and two white males – shortly before he was found dead in a marshy area. Authorities have not released any other details about the suspects, and it's unclear if they have more information.

"We have absolutely no proof that they exist other than that call-in," Rudd said. "We don't have video. We don't have anybody that's come to the police and say, 'We've seen certain individuals leave the scene at this hour at this day, they looked like they were this tall, they were of this ethnicity or race, they looked like they weighed this much.' We don't have anything."

So far his death has been treated as a homicide, though authorities have recently parsed their words when discussing the case."

"Three cop killers are still at large."

Illinois investigators warn coroner to stop releasing information about officer's death

<http://www.foxnews.com/us/2015/09/10/illinois-investigators-warn-coroner-to-stop-releasing-information-about-officer/>

“Officials leading the investigation into the shooting death of a northern Illinois police officer slammed a county coroner for releasing details they say could jeopardize their case.

Lake County Major Crime Task Force Cmdr. George Filenko and Undersheriff Ray Rose said in a statement Thursday that the release of sensitive case information concerning the death of Fox Lake Police Lt. Charles Gliniewicz is outside of protocol and unprofessional.

Filenko and Rose made the assertions after Lake County Coroner Dr. Thomas Rudd told the Chicago Tribune that Gliniewicz was shot in the torso. A day earlier, Rudd told multiple media organizations the officer died due to a single "devastating" gunshot wound. He also said his office has not ruled out the possibility of suicide or accident.”

But Thursday’s admission that there were unspecified “indications” of a struggle was the first time Lake County authorities have been able to convincingly push back on the suicide theory since it was raised.”

FBI to probe mental state of Illinois cop killed under mysterious circumstances

<http://www.foxnews.com/us/2015/11/02/fbi-to-probe-mental-state-illinois-cop-killed-under-mysterious-circumstances/>

Repeat of Greta Susteren video with testimonials from friends of Gliniewicz and search for killers. Text in this post however relates the involvement of the FBI as the local sheriff and police departments seem stymied: “The bureau will compile its own victimology report, which is a comprehensive study of a victim’s behavior, mental state and actions. In the case of Gliniewicz, investigators are examining his professional and personal life to find clues as to what may have led to his death. Already, there has been speculation that Gliniewicz may have been distraught about an internal police department asset and inventory check.

“To an extent, the internal review of assets is [tied to our investigation] because it was something he was a part of, so it can’t be discounted,” Lake County Task Force spokesman Chris Covelli told Fox News.

The exact nature of Gliniewicz’s involvement in that review is not clear. Fox News has submitted multiple requests for details under the Freedom Of Information Act, but the Village of Fox Lake has declined the requests-- citing an active investigation.

The FBI's independent report might serve as a relief to those who have questioned the integrity and lengthiness of the Lake County investigation. Since Gliniewicz's death there's been rampant speculation about how he died. Two separate sources close to the case have told Fox News evidence suggests he might have committed suicide."
