

Image 1)

This is the first flash that was ordered. As you can see, it has a protective film on it.

(Order # 302-5997208-0293123)

Image 2)

This is the second flash that was ordered. It arrived with no protective film on the display, which would have been present if this was a new item.

(Order # 028-8404682-5470713)

Image 3)

This is the first flash that was bought. The serial number reads:

66057579

Image 4)

This is the second flash that was bought. The serial number reads:

66036898

As you can see, the serial number of the second flash that was bought is lower, indicating that the flash is from older stock that was already sold to someone in the past, much earlier.

Image 5)

Finally, another sign that the flash was previously used is that the second flash came with a protective pouch that was already damaged when it arrived.

Image 6), Image 7)

Close-ups of the signs of use on the protective pouch of flash 2.
