

716

Documentation

Column Feeds

People's Journal Editorial

October 22, 2015

PEOPLES JOURNAL
Thursday, October 22, 2015

EDITORIAL

Natural-born or naturalized?

"I HEREBY declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of whom or which I heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support or defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America ..."

These declarations are part of the oath that naturalized US citizens have to swear to after securing approval of their application for naturalization.

Senator Grace Poe took this oath on October 18, 2007, some 10 years after marrying an American citizen. She has since reacquired her Filipino citizenship to satisfy the citizenship requirement of her 2013 senatorial run where she emerged on top. But her victory remains unacceptable to certain parties, and her reacquisition of her Philippine citizenship is one of the contentious issues in the disqualification case filed against her in the Senate Electoral Tribunal.

Banking on the popularity she has attained and once again capitalizing on the emotional bond she has achieved with the public arising out of the drama in her life as a founding and adoptive daughter of the iconic Fernando Poe, Jr., she has now embarked on a quest for the Presidency of this country.

However, the issue about her citizenship remains a major stumbling block on her march to Malacañang. Those opposed to her bid for the Presidency are now zeroing in on that part of the oath of US citizenship where she declared that "I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity" to any country of which she was formerly a citizen.

Ordinarily, and if uttered under the usual circumstances by somebody other than an aspirant for the Presidency, that particular phrase should be treated matter-of-factly as customary part of the process under US naturalization law.

Unfortunately, when translated to Tagalog or Filipino, the phrase sounds much more unscrupulous as the translation engenders a truly disgraceful inference when she, under oath, declares thus: "... Jabosin at buo kong tinatalikuran at tinatakwil ang lahat ng katapatan at pagmamano ... to her former country.

It is also argued that she did not have to apply for US citizenship since her marriage to an American citizen already entitles her to US residency. The question now being hurled at her and which she needs to address is: "Dapat bang iboto bilang Pangulo ang isang minsang nagtakwil sa kanyang pagka-Filipino?" The unmistakable message that it is desperately trying to get across to the voters is the insinuation that her reacquisition of Filipino citizenship is tantamount to an act of betrayal, if not outright treachery, to the country.

While the case before the Senate Electoral Tribunal pertains to her position as senator, it has a direct bearing on her presidential candidacy where the same issue of citizenship is of paramount concern.

This makes it imperative for the SET to decide soonest on this controversy. The crucial question that needs to be resolved, assuming that Senator Poe is a natural-born Filipino, is whether she lost this status when she became a US citizen. And if so, did her reacquisition of Filipino citizenship restore her natural-born status or is she now considered simply as a naturalized citizen?

It would be utterly unfair to those who believe in her if the issue is allowed to hang up to next year's elections. With various surveys showing her as leading the rest of the candidates for the post, unimaginable chaos could ensue if she gets elected as president, only to be disqualified later.

People's Tonight Editorial

October 22, 2015

PEOPLE'S
Tonight

4 THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2015

EDITORIAL

Natural-born or naturalized?

"I HEREBY declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of whom or which I heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support or defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America ..."

These declarations are part of the oath that naturalized US citizens have to swear to after securing approval of their application for naturalization.

Senator Grace Poe took this oath on October 18, 2001, some 10 years after marrying an American citizen. She has since reacquired her Filipino citizenship to satisfy the citizenship requirement of her 2013 senatorial run where she emerged on top. But her victory remains unacceptable to certain parties, and her renunciation of her Philippine citizenship is one of the contentious issues in the disqualification case filed against her in the Senate Electoral Tribunal.

Banking on the popularity she has attained and once again capitalizing on the emotional bond she has achieved with the public arising out of the drama in her life as a founding and adoptive daughter of the iconic Fernando Poe, Jr., she has now embarked on a quest for the Presidency of this country.

However, the issue about her citizenship remains a major stumbling block on her march to Malacañang. Those opposed to her bid for the Presidency are now zeroing in on that part of the oath of US citizenship where she declared that "I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity" to any country of which she was formerly a citizen.

Ordinarily, and if entered under the usual circumstances by somebody other than an aspirant for the Presidency, that particular phrase should be treated matter-of-factly as customary part of the process under US naturalization law.

Unfortunately, when translated to Tagalog or Filipino, the phrase sounds much more unscrupulous as the translation engenders a truly disgraceful inference when she, under oath, declares thus: "...lobosan at buo kong tinatalikuran at itinaakwil ang isahat ng katapatan at pagpuno" ... to her former country.

It is also argued that she did not have to apply for US citizenship since her marriage to an American citizen already entitles her to US residency. The question now being hurled at her and which she needs to address is: "Dapat bang iboto bilang Fungulo ang isang mins'y nagtakwil sa kanyang pagka-Filipino?" The unmistakable message that it is desperately trying to get across to the voters is the insinuation that her renunciation of Filipino citizenship is tantamount to an act of betrayal, if not outright treachery, to the country. While the case before the Senate Electoral Tribunal pertains to her position as senator, it has a direct bearing on her presidential candidacy where the same issue of citizenship is of paramount concern.

This makes it imperative for the SET to decide soonest on this controversy. The crucial question that needs to be resolved, assuming that Senator Poe is a natural-born Filipino, is whether she lost this status when she became a US citizen. And if so, did her reacquisition of Filipino citizenship restore her natural-born status or is she now considered simply as a naturalized citizen?

It would be utterly unfair to those who believe in her if the issue is allowed to hang up to next year's elections. With various surveys showing her as leading the rest of the candidates for the post, unimaginable chaos could ensue if she gets elected as president, only to be disqualified later.

The Standard (Emil Jurado) November 3, 2015

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2015
OPINION 910 The Standard
lettertotheditor@thestandard.com.ph

POE'S EXCESS BAGGAGE

TO THE POINT
EMIL P. JURADO

“

She has the heaviest baggage of them all.

”

***

The camp of Liberal Party/ administration candidate Mar Roxas describes the political resume of Senator Grace Poe as the leanest among the resume of all presidential candidates. I agree.

She brings nothing except the belief that she's popular enough to be elected President. This only shows how misguided she is. Mere popularity is not a ticket to the presidency. One must have a well-funded grassroots machinery.

Poe, for her part, says that while she may have the least experience in public service among her competitors, she does not have excess baggage, either. She means that she does not have other problems to contend with.

She must believe that the disqualification cases she is facing and questions about her residency and citizenship are just a joke.

Think again, Grace. You have been caught lying about many things.

In fact, I would even say that she has the heaviest baggage among her competitors.

I cannot understand why Mrs. Mary Grace Poe Llamanzares is such in a hurry to be President. Deep in her hearts she should know she has many years to ripen as a politician.

She has had a brief stint as a movie censor, and as a senator. These are not enough.

I am told that it must have been my friend, glib-talking Senator Chiz Escudero, who convinced Mrs. Mary Grace Poe Llamanzares to run for President since he'd always be there as Vice President to guide her ways of governance. In other words, the neophyte would just be dependent on Chiz and her political adviser.

"Malaking disgracia," if she gets disqualified from the race.

***

The Standard

November 12, 2015

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2015

OPINION

let her (c) feed@thestandard.com.ph

A/D

Standard

TO THE POINT
EMIL P. JURADO

month, and if the SET rules against her, she could well be ousted as a senator and even as a presidential contender.

With all the troubles besetting her, Poe is frantically in search of that bridge that will take her over troubled waters. But, unlike the lyrics of the '60s song of the same title, her time to shine has not yet come — and may not come at all. In fact, her dream of a stay in Malacañang is in danger of being swept away in a raging political tempest.

At the moment, there are four other petitions before the Comelec seeking her disqualification from the presidential elections next year. These are the cases she can't simply dismiss as harassment suits because they are based on solid constitutional grounds. The complainants are highly credible individuals, former Senator KR Tatal, former GSIS lawyer Estrella Elamparo, De La Salle University political science professor Antonio Contreras and lately, former UE College of Law Dean Amado Valdez.

Now, even some big names in the entertainment industry who supported Poe for senator could find themselves respondents in criminal and administrative suits due to alleged violations of the Corporate Code (Batas Pambansa Blg. 68) that bars companies from giving donations to any political party or candidate, or for purposes of any partisan political activity.

It appears from records when Poe ran for the Senate in 2013, she received campaign contributions from a well-known company that produces a highly rated noontime show over television. And as expected, Poe herself submitted to the Comelec of the SOCEI or Statement of Contributions and Expenses that showed a donation of P3,307,390.80 from the producers of the show. And this was stated in a notarized report dated June 15, 2013 and duly signed by the producer.

The prohibition against political campaign contributions by corporations is specified in Section 36 (9) of the Corporation Code. Section 144 of the code says that violators may face fines of not less than P1,000, but not more than P10,000, or imprisonment for not less than 30 years, but more than five years, or both. The penalty may cause dissolution of the company by the SEC. It is also in the Omnibus Election Code.

Ground Operations

Text Blast (Sample)

- ▶ A “confusing” text blast was sent out to 300,000 recipients (which included key influencers) across all networks
- ▶ Operation was implemented October 20, 2015
- ▶ The message was intended to spark debate whether it was a sincere statement from the Poe camp, or a smash job from another camp (most likely Binay), to create confusion and, ultimately, discussion

Text Blast

- ▶ The messages caused an uproar leading to complaints to Smart and Globe.

A screenshot of a Facebook post. At the top, it says "Marion Urmeneta added 2 new photos." with a small profile picture and a dropdown arrow. Below that, it says "21 hrs · Mandaluyong · 🧑🏻". The main text of the post is a long paragraph discussing an unsolicited SMS received from "GraceChiz" claiming to be from presidential candidate Grace Poe. The text criticizes the BPO industry and lists several points: "hindi nyo dapat ipagmalaki ang mga call center", "dahil puro sakit lang ang naidulot nito sa bayan", and "sayang any pinag-aralan ng bayan". It then provides a detailed rebuttal, stating that the IT-BPO industry has surpassed India and is projected to be a $48B revenue behemoth for the Philippines by 2020. It also mentions that the industry is projected to provide up to 3.3 million jobs, which is a positive contribution to the economy. The text concludes by stating that the BPO industry's contribution to the country's GDP is the biggest and is currently offsetting the slump in OFW remittances. The text ends with "Finally, not two candidates can put an entire".

So I got this unsolicited SMS with sender ID "GraceChiz" with a quote purporting to be from presidential candidate Grace Poe. The accuracy of the quote is shady at most but the foolish statement it makes about the BPO industry just draws my ire. First it says "hindi nyo dapat ipagmalaki ang mga call center", second "dahil puro sakit lang ang naidulot nito sa bayan" and last "sayang any pinag-aralan ng bayan". To set the facts straight, the IT-BPO industry, and its call-center subsector has surpassed India and made the Philippines a global leader in this field since 2010. Now it is projected to be a $48B revenue behemoth for the Philippines by 2020. Along with its new subsectors in the telco and IT industries, its projected to provide up to 3.3 million in jobs (is that what you call sickness?). Sayang ang pinag-aralan ng kabataan? Why? Should we all go abroad now? Sisigaw na lang din ba tayo ng POWER? How much in taxes have the most popular MLM business in PH paid out? If any? The BPO industry's contribution to the country's GDP is the biggest and is currently offsetting the slump in OFW remittances (former #1 contributor) brought about by the decreasing prices of oil. What that means is that it keeps our country afloat as a competitive economic nation. Simply put, it makes sense to do legitimate business in the Philippines more nowadays even if just a little. Finally, not two candidates can put an entire

Text Blast

- ▶ The two networks were forced to act decisively and ban all political mass text from the networks.

Text Blast

- ▶ Because of this, we entirely shutdown an entire campaign channel that the other camps can no longer utilize.

The image shows two screenshots side-by-side. The left screenshot is an iPhone text message from 'GraceChiz' received at 6:14 PM. The message text reads: "Grace Poe: 'Hindi niyo dapat ipagmamalaki ang mga call-center, dahil puro sakit at bisyo lang ang naidulot nito sa bayan. Sayang ang pinag-aralan ng kabataan. Grace at Chiz para sa tunay na kaunlaran!'" The right screenshot is a Facebook post by Tim Tayag, dated October 21. The post text says: "I guess it's legal to send unwanted sponsored text messages to my phone even though I'm paying for the service, kinda like paying for cable and still getting ads. It's campaign time." The post has 71 shares and several comments, including one from Rommel Juaban and another from Danilo Jr Mante. At the bottom of the Facebook post, there is a caption: "Tim Tayag's Photos in Mobile Uploads" with options for "Options", "Share", "Send", and "Like".

Grace of God (sample)

- ▶ The following flyer was inserted into the misalettes of the first morning masses and was also distributed by hand to the churchgoers of the target locations
- ▶ Operation was implemented October 29–30 ,2015
- ▶ Operations commenced at the Manila Cathedral (Manila), Sto. Domingo Church (Quezon City), Don Bosco Chapel, and St. Francis Parish

Grace of God (Sto. Domingo Church)

Grace of God (Manila Cathedral)

Grace of God

- ▶ There was some social media attention to the activity, but more importantly, the effect on the ground was net negative for Poe. Mass-goers were incredulous. Ground operators had more flyers, but had to escape due to threats on their person.

All Stickers Day (Sample)

- ▶ Grace Chiz extra-sticky stickers were terribly placed in gravestones and other parts of target cemeteries
- ▶ Implemented on November 1, 2015 at the South Cemetery, North Cemetery, Golden Heaven Cemetery, and Manila Memorial

AI Stickers Day

AI Stickers Day

All Stickers Day

- ▶ Also got some social media attention, and the ground effect was, of course, exceptionally negative for GP. Some cemetery-goers were reportedly forced to pay extra to have the gravestones of their loved ones cleaned.

Masel Candado ▸ Pinoy Tayo

Pinadala lang po sa akin ng tito ko ang gma ito. Buti na lang hindi tinamaan puntod ng lola namin (may gate kasi e), pero yung iba binastos talaga mga puntod. Nakakadiri. Sana po malaman ng mga tao ang mga katarandaduhang ganito. Galing sa Golden Heaven po ito.

From: Photos of Pinoy Tayo

Shared with: Public

Open Photo Viewer

Star Spangled Banner

- ▶ A video jingle with a deceptively positive message, but sung to the tune of the American National Anthem.
- ▶ Video was posted on November 17, 2015

Star Spangled Banner

- ▶ A fake vimeo account, made to look official, was made to appear as the source of the video

Star Spangled Banner

- ▶ Social media picked this up as well, and really made the impression that GP knows well that she is deceiving the public about her citizenship

November

Martin Luis O. Valencia
November 17 at 10:26am · @

Seryoso ba sila? Wow!

Grace Poe - Tunay na Filipino
VIMEO.COM

Like Comment Share

2 people like this.

5 shares

View 4 more comments

Martin Luis O. Valencia So SET has allowed her to run.
Like · Reply · 1 · November 20 at 9:35am

Renato Tranquilino Yup I have decided to run too...I will represent both Australia and Philippines...just so Oceania's interest are also represented in the Philippines.
Like · Reply · 1 · November 20 at 1:18pm

Martin Luis O. Valencia Sa basketball may imports at filam. Pati ba naman sa pagtakbo sa pagpangulo?
Like · Reply · 2 · November 20 at 1:23pm

Jesed Francis Moreno replied · 2 Replies

Martin Luis O. Valencia Roy A MaCaras
Like · Reply · November 24 at 1:06pm

Martin Luis O. Valencia replied · 2 Replies

Star Spangled Banner

- ▶ Social media picked this up as well, and really made the impression that GP knows well that she is deceiving the public about her citizenship

Star Spangled Banner

- ▶ Social media picked this up as well, and really made the impression that GP knows well that she is deceiving the public about her citizenship

Inquirer Ad

- ▶ A “full-page ad” was inserted into 5,000 issues of the Philippine Daily Inquirer, which were delivered to various locations in Metro Manila
- ▶ Implemented on December 17, 2015

Tuloy POE ang LABAN!

“Naniniwala ako na hindi lang dapat ang pagiging natural-born Filipino, tagal ng residency, at karanasan sa pwesto sa pulitika ang batayan sa pagiging epektibong Pangulo. Ang puso ni Grace Poe ay mas matibay sa Konstitusyon ng Pilipinas!”

P O E 2 0 1 6

Inquirer Ad

- ▶ To make the “ad” more convincing. The back page replicates a page of the Inquirer.

Inquirer Ad

- ▶ Once again picked up on social media and garnered the intended reaction

Inquirer Ad

Arpee Lazaro
Follow · 13 hrs · 🌐

What kind of ad is this?! "ang puso ni Grace Poe ay mas matibay pa sa Konstitusyon ng Pilipinas"

WTF?!

👍 Like   🗨 Comment   ➦ Share

👤 & 8 others

3 shares

Actually, the ENTIRE ad is offensive, but the kicker most especially. I've added emphasis to your picture above to make it clearer. Grabe!

Write a comment...

Car Stickers (Sample)

- ▶ Extra-sticky stickers of Poe declaring that she is not down and out were stuck on vehicles at the PDI parking area, Market! Market!, and Festival Mall
- ▶ Note that these stickers are almost impossible to remove, and were placed at terrible angles on vehicles.
- ▶ Ground operators left just as major commotions were starting among car-owners and security guards.
- ▶ Implemented on December 21, 2015.

Car Stickers

Car Stickers

Car Stickers

Online Operations

Twitter hi-jack

- ▶ Whenever there is an issue that we raise against GP regarding any of her tweets, we employ some accounts to instigate resentment on the threads

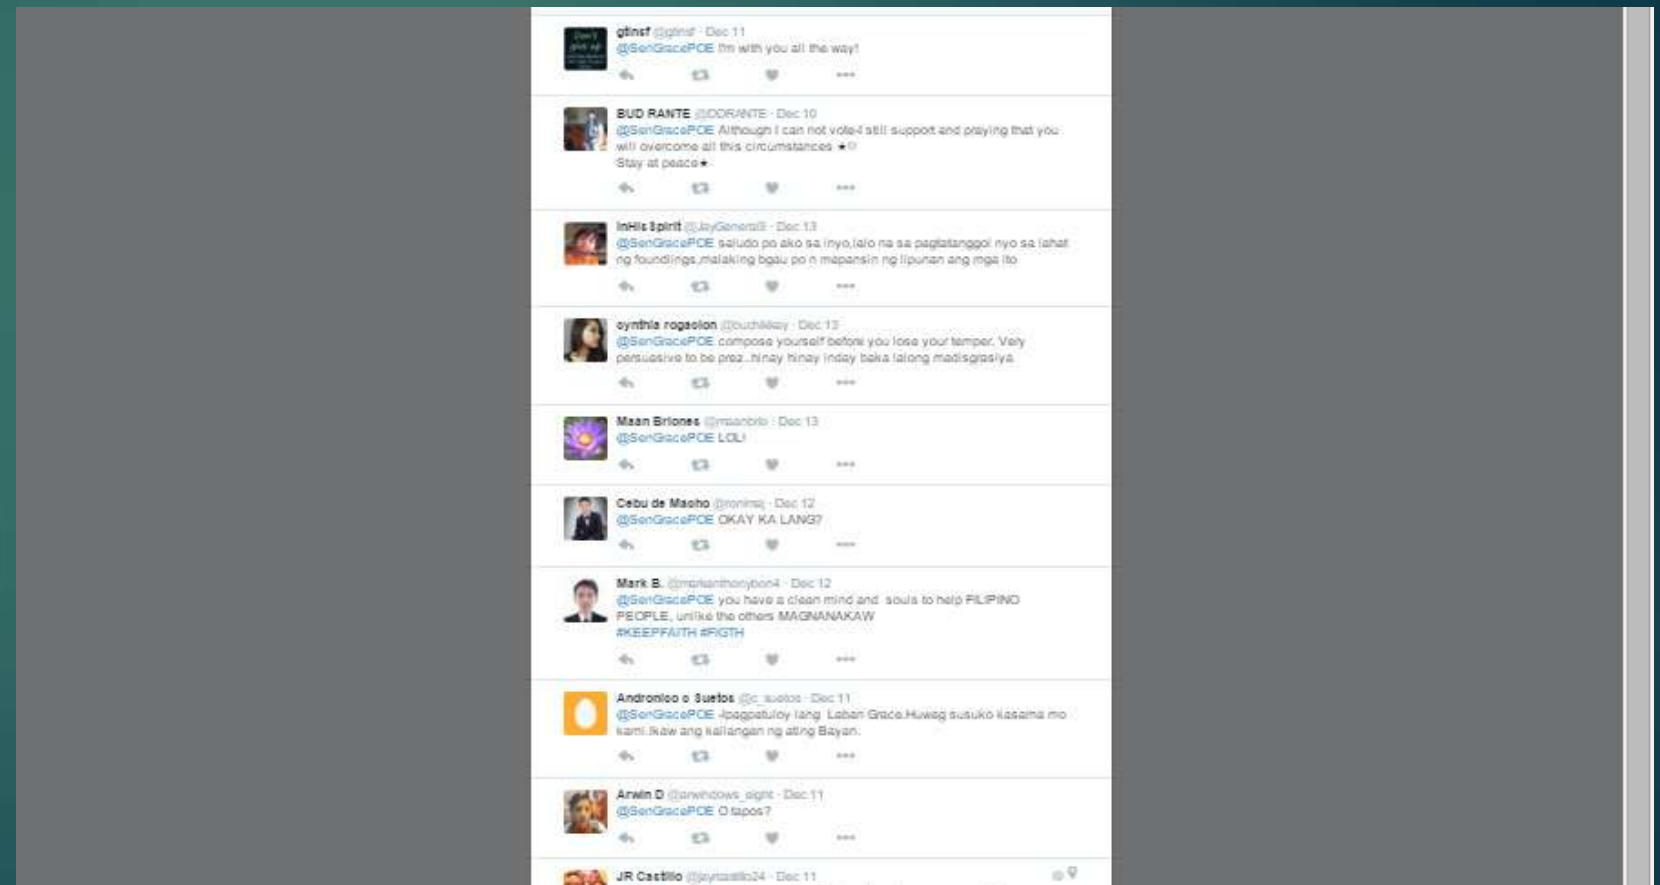

The screenshot shows a Twitter thread on the profile of Grace Poe (@SenGracePOE). The main tweet, posted on Dec 10, 2015, at 8:01 PM, reads: "I am still a candidate for PRESIDENT. Let's fight for democracy, where the people's welfare takes front & center facebook.com/sengracepoe/po... RT". The tweet has 127 retweets and 145 likes. Below the main tweet, several replies are visible:

- A reply from @kayelannat (@vntafouer77) on Dec 10: "@SenGracePOE galangin nyo naman sana ang bates! Epat na kayo a..."
- A reply from @olodualdo.a.josmino (@ja_josmino) on Dec 10: "@SenGracePOE my advice to U is take a good exit with grace act. The Filipino people will understand and wait for ur time Listen 2 yourself."
- A reply from @IamVicGabas (@VicGabas) on Dec 10: "@SenGracePOE at one point u had me but as the events unfolded I've lost me."
- A reply from @KA3HICHI (@vntgarcia1) on Dec 10: "@SenGracePOE How? 2 Com'lec Divisions already cancelled your COC. Ass kpa?"
- A reply from @MarionHolgado (@msroshho_34) on Dec 13: "@SenGracePOE di ka talaga papalting eh non? walang makakapigil? ga ing tulo'y mo ing. Rawind naman sayo. May fast forward na eh. "sigh"

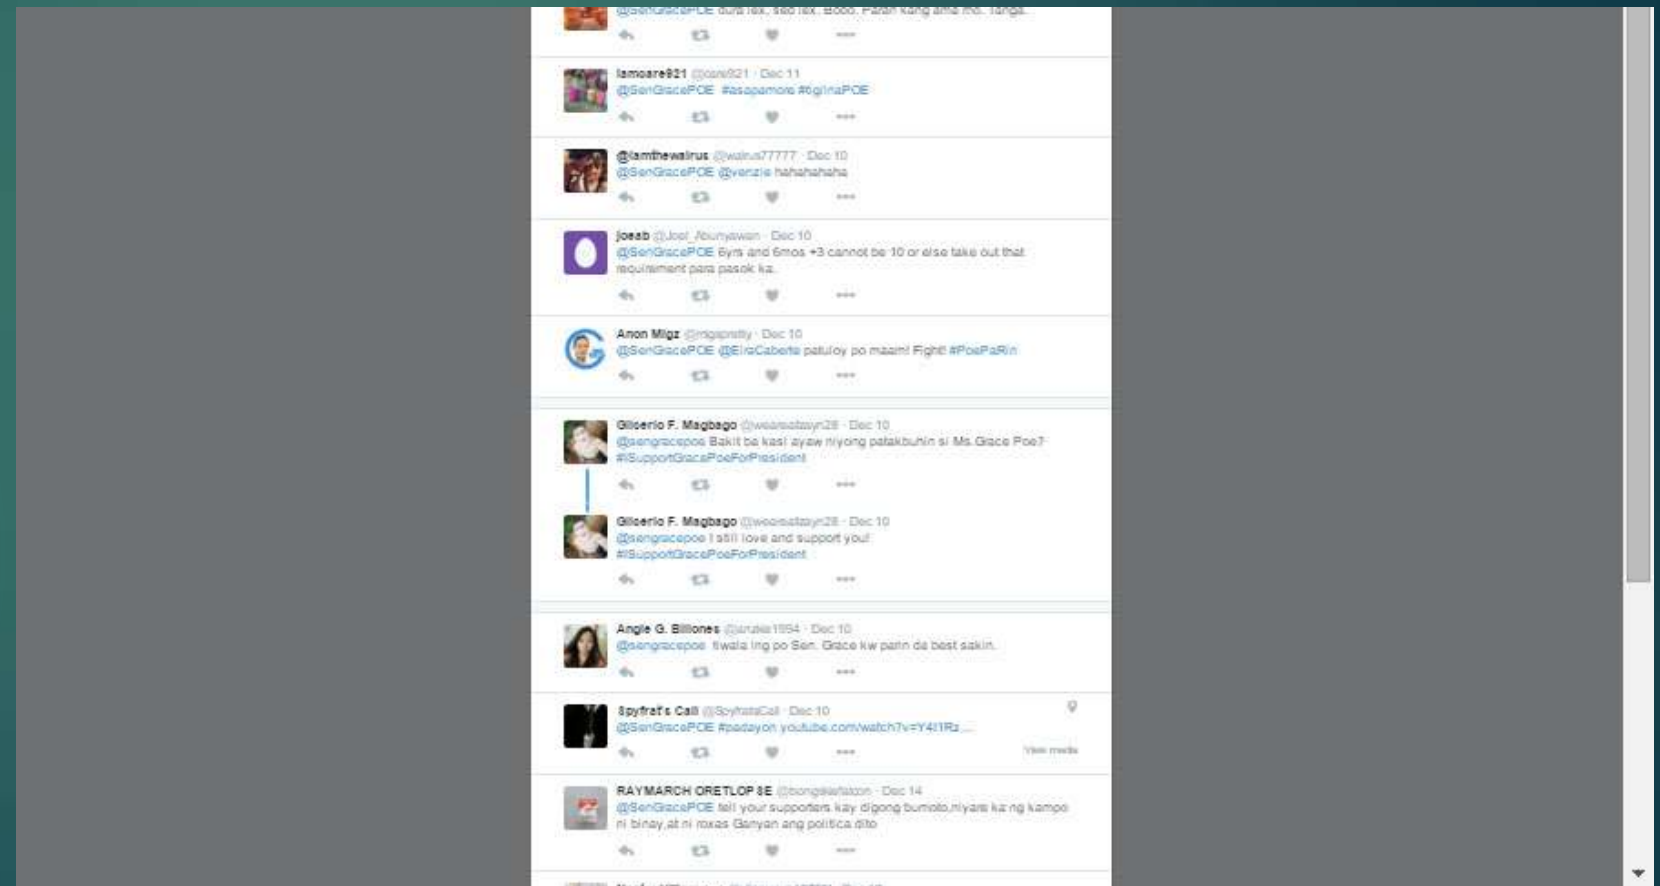

The background of the profile page features a banner with the text "LABAN POE" and "#LABANPOE2016". The profile name is "GRACE POE" (@SenGracePOE), with a bio that reads: "Official Twitter Account of Senator Grace Poe: Public Servant, Daughter, Wife, Mother, Filipino". It also notes she joined Twitter in October 2012.

Twitter hi-jack

- ▶ These on-account attacks are isolated to Twitter because, unlike in Facebook, her followers are not all pro-Poe and would have a harder time of burying negative comments

Twitter hi-jack

Twitter hi-jack

The image shows a screenshot of a Twitter profile page for GRACE POE (@SenGracePOE). The profile header includes a banner image of a crowd and a logo for 'LABAN POE #LABANPOE2016'. The profile name is GRACE POE, and the bio identifies her as the Official Twitter Account of Senator Grace Poe, Public Servant, Daughter, Wife, and Mother. She joined Twitter in October 2012.

The main content is a tweet from GRACE POE (@SenGracePOE) dated 8:48 PM - 20 Dec 2015. The tweet text reads: "What a wonderful Christmas gift to the Philippines facebook.com/sengracepoe/po... RT #MissUniverse2015 #GALING #PUSO". The tweet includes a photo of Miss Universe 2015, Galing Puso, with the caption "GALING AT PUSO #POE2016". The tweet has 441 retweets and 1,092 likes.

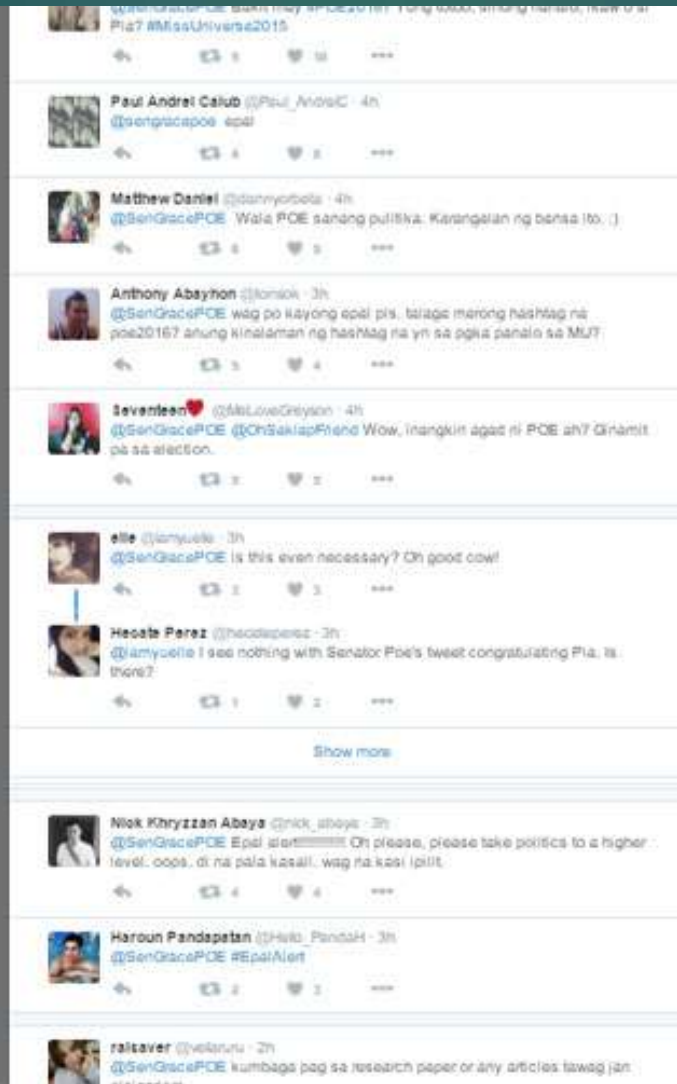

Below the tweet, there are two retweets:

- A retweet by Dyosamarie (@Dyosamarie78) from 4h ago, with the text: "@SenGracePOE @TheBobOngQuote grabe nman. Ginamit n agad s election. Kadikit Korbing niya nman."
- A retweet by jezelle & Aaf (@randomsall) from 2h ago, with the text: "Today in crass opportunism: twitter.com/SenGracePOE/st... @SenGracePOE"

The right side of the screenshot shows a search bar and a partial view of another tweet with the hashtag #POE2016.

Twitter hi-jack

Twitter hi-jack

- ▶ On December 21, 2015, GP's twitter congratulated Pia Wurtzbach for winning the Ms. Universe title. Some assets quickly pointed out how it was "epal", especially since she included her campaign hashtags. The tweet was deleted within 24 hours, due to the influx of negative comments.

Twitter hi-jack

News and FB hi-jack

- ▶ Whenever there is an opportunity to sow negative comments against GP and positive comments for MR, assets will try to drive conversation.

The screenshot shows a news article on the Inquirer.net website. The main headline is "Poe scoffs at 'tuwid na daan,' hits 'perpetual' contractualization". The article is by Malle Agre, published on December 8th, 2015, at 11:51 AM. It has 1783 shares and several comments. The article features a photo of Senator Grace Poe speaking at a podium. The text of the article discusses her criticism of the administration's "tuwid na daan" (straight path) policy, stating that many people are still hopeless and living in poverty despite its implementation. She also mentions that the straight path has paved for improvements but has been hindered by traffic. The article includes a quote from Poe: "Sabi nila, meron na raw nagawa na motuwid na daan. Tuwid nga, ma-tripik namon (They say that the straight path has paved for improvements. While the path is straight, it has been hindered by traffic)." Poe said when she spoke before the 70th celebration of the Philippine Government Employees Association-Trade Union Congress of the Philippines on Monday. Another quote from her says: "Sa madaling salita, meron din mabuti na nagawa ang huling administrasyon. Pero kailangan din nating magtaya sa kabutihanan: hindi lalhat na nagsasawa o hindi naka-ehersisyo na arin na taon ay nakasustansya ng".

The page also features a "RECOMMENDED" section with articles like "Prince of Philippines accused of land grabbing" and "Palace hails Pia's win". There is also an "IN THE KNOW" section with articles like "Untold story behind Parol Row" and "Cebu Pacific, PAL ban hoverboards". A "Did You Know" section mentions "Estrada sends SWAT team to Divisoria" and "Mar and Dizon are only human". Other news snippets include "Chinese caught with P15-M worth of 'shabu' in Makati" and "Angat Dam spill alarms Bulacan towns".

On the right side, there is a "POPULAR" section with articles like "Colombians rally around fallen queen: lawyer eyes suit vs" and "Donald Trump: Make Miss Philippines, Miss Colombia co-winners". There is also a "LATEST VIDEOS" section.

News and FB hi-jack

(0933)200-0000
HLURB TLS No. 0059

General Maxilom Avenue corner
Osmena Boulevard, Cebu City
Owner/Developer:
Robinsons Land Corporation

Rabz Rex

Aba... GAYA-GAYA Puto Maya itong si Grace LLAMANZARES.... ENDING CONTRACTUALIZATION in the WORKPLACE is DUTERTE's ADVOCACY! Anyone NO OnE has the MONOPOLY of Pro-Workers AGENDA but Better Late then Never...

Like · Reply · 4 · Dec 8, 2015 11:59am

Dyun Lakgaza · Los Angeles, California

The hell with Duterte and Grace Poe!!! If Duterte wants to end contractualization, he should have opted for higher office either in the congress or senate and proposed laws to nullify contractualization LONG TIME AGO!! If Poe thinks the same, the moment she was elected in the Senate, where is the law she have submitted to end these injustice to the working force!! Puro kayo daldal!!! Puro kayo advocacy!! Puro pangako. Dekada nobenta ko pa na-experience yan pero wala namang nagawa ang mga politiko!

Like · Reply · 7 · Dec 8, 2015 12:08pm

Boy Naranjo · Colegio De San Francisco Javier

Dyun Lakgaza may nagawa naman si lamansares, sumakay ng MRT. pagbaba niya ng train, expert na siya sa tren at trapik...

Like · Reply · 5 · Dec 8, 2015 12:25pm · Edited

Mel Zagala · Daly City, California

Thats politics. Candidates naturally has to criticize the incumbent just to show they have platforms to show to the public. They normally use the poor to push their candidacy. Im too old to believe that anyone can solve Metro Manila traffic even nationally and the problem with the poor. The poor people always blame the government for their stupidity and ignorant. Filipino drivers are to blame for the traffic due to their lack of discipline.

Like · Reply · 19 · Dec 8, 2015 12:25pm

Rolando Jojo Leonor · Works at PNB - Philippine National Bank

I agree

Like · Reply · 3 · Dec 8, 2015 1:41pm

Simeon Feliciano Jr. · Auckland, New Zealand

You are right. It is so easy to point a finger but very difficult to find a solution especially when the problem was put on the shoulders by the victims themselves. Much of our woes were created by ourselves not the government. Poooh please stop pointing a finger. declare your platform

News and FB hi-jack

(0933)200-0000
HLURB TLS No. 0059

General Maxilom Avenue corner
Osmeña Boulevard, Cebu City
Owner/Developer:
Robinsons Land Corporation

(0933)200-0000
HLURB TLS No. 0059

General Maxilom Avenue corner
Osmeña Boulevard, Cebu City

Ivan Bagaybagayan Sr. · Ateneo de Manila High School

pinakamadali mangako---- hanapin mo muna ang mga kadugong magulang mo at maging patriotic ka muna sa bayan natin----grace poe

Like · Reply · 6 · Dec 8, 2015 12:35pm

Paradise Place

Why would PH even consider electing someone who already pledged allegiance to the flag of another country to be the next President? Only uneducated, unworthy and unpatriotic citizens of the Republic would do such dispeccable act.

Like · Reply · 5 · Dec 8, 2015 12:46pm

Añolina Flor-Nagel · University of the East

Anung connection sa paglingkod sa Bayan na ipahanap ang kadugo? Kasalanan ba ng isang nilalang na itinapon ng isang walang Pusong Ina? Porket ba Foundling, wala ng karapatang mamuhay kagaya ng karapatan ng mga pinanganak na kilala ang kanilang magulang?

Like · Reply · Dec 8, 2015 1:49pm

Wilfredo Beltran · University of the EAST MANILA

Añolina Flor-Nagel malaking bagay po si g poe naging amerikano, okay siya po ay isang foundling base sa kwento ng nag adopt sa kanya at ayon na rin sa kanya. meron po tayong batas na dapat ay sinusunod at nasusunod. hwag po tayong maging emotional at dapat mag isip po tayo and vote for the CANDIDATE who is qualified. peace po.

Like · Reply · Dec 8, 2015 4:45pm

Ed Reyes

Is just another way of Poe promising everything and anything Again she is talking about a dead horse to death Traffics in EDSA of which Pnoy Admin already have work on it and will be done by 2016 or after he left office Poe, Binay, so far are just cherry picking on issue, now Contractor jobs is simply base on Supply and demand for instance Garments job is a supply and demand seasonal jobs that is just way it is no way out short demand means less labor force is a reality on manufacturing jobs if your specialty is Carpenter Brick layers, electrician, those skills are seasonal or base on d... See More

Like · Reply · 10 · Dec 8, 2015 12:38pm

Rabz Rex

Lol 😊 Those Millions of Votes will Just Evaporate as Most of Them are Sick & Tired of

News and FB hi-jack

Philippine Daily Inquirer (Official)
Like This Page · December 12 ·

Here are the stories that made #Inquirer's December 12 front page. Read the full edition in print or digital inq.ph/inquirepaper #VotePH2016

Like Comment Share

7 Top Comments

5 shares

Edz Manalansan ThAnks comelec.ambisysang ampon kapal ng mukha buti nga syo un mga pngtatanggol mo ngyn cnraan k.tsaka anung alam mo hnd mu nm ntkman hrap ng buhay ngmit nyo pa mhhrap ayusin mu ning czishnp mo
Like Reply · December 12 at 6:41pm

Ahbe Lecias Inggit lang ang comelec kaya ganung ang decision nila. I dont trust their credibility ksyia fi bakanh ako boboto.
Like Reply · December 12 at 2:32pm

Jef Pasuelo Dela Cruz #duterte vs the world
Like Reply · December 12 at 10:47am

John I. Jusav very good inhl #COMELC
Write a comment...

Philippine Daily Inquirer (Official) Photos Like

Comelec DQ strike 2 for Poe

She tried 'to deceive, mislead electorate'

Poe vs Duterte vs Binay vs Roxas

PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER

Grace: I'm hurt but I'm still candidate for President

P-Noy: Part of me wants to stay on as President

Anthony Bourdain spotted at Jollibee

PETRON The Lamborghini Touch

Beggar writes best seller—but still begs in Paris

News and FB hi-jack

INQUIRER.net December 18 at 7:35pm · 🌐 Like Page

Like other OFWs, Grace Poe said she also left the country to be with her family and better provide for their needs. #VotePH2016

Poe decries 'unfair' treatment to 'new heroes' like her
Sen. Grace Poe lamented on Friday what she described as "unfair" treatment to the so-called "new heroes" who had decided to run for public office like her. This after the issue on the

NEWSINFO.INQUIRER.NET | BY MAILA AGER

Like Comment Share

👍👎🗨️ 568 Top Comments

130 shares

Write a comment...

Ian Fernandez There is a big difference between you and the OFWs.They LEFT THEIR FAMILIES to seek greener pasture abroad while you left the country TO BE WITH YOUR FAMILY. Ano ka ba before Justice to all Foundlings sinisigaw mo tapos ngayon HERO ka naman?
Like Reply 177 · December 18 at 7:42pm · Edited
Hide 35 Replies

Write a reply...

Rovan Phran Gille Deldo My goodness, you are not same like us OFWs, you are born in high stature and was there in US to enjoy, so please do not use our label and level.
Like Reply 178 · December 18 at 7:41pm

News and FB hi-jack

 Edwina Gandoza OFWs left their families to work in foreign countries to provide for them. They were not given the opportunity to be citizens of those countries. Grace left the Phils for the US to be with her husband, built a family there and eventually became a US citizen. That makes a whole lot of difference! The more she opens her mouth, the more ridiculous ( sorry for the word) her pronouncements are.
Like · Reply ·  82 · December 18 at 7:53pm · Edited

View all 3 replies

 Write a reply...

 Sophie Wood I beg to differ. OFWs never renounced their allegiance to the Philippine flag. Please do not disrespect OFWs and their families by comparing yourself to them. You did not even experience half the emotional and physical turmoil they went through.

Like · Reply ·  72 · December 18 at 8:26pm

View all 2 replies

 Write a reply...

 ReyNold Teo OFWs work for family. Grace Poe works for opportunities.
Like · Reply ·  46 · December 18 at 7:44pm

 Cenon G Costales Jr Mawalang galang sayo Grace Poe, kelan ka naging OFW at naging bayani? Ilusyonada ang lokal

Like · Reply ·  39 · December 18 at 7:46pm · Edited

 Eiram Ann Cee Pee Patawa nman c Ms Grace. Her situation is vry much different from us typical OFW. She is an only child of the king n queen of Philippine movies who are already rich. There is no need for her to go overseas and "provide" for the needs of her family as she is saying now. Oh pls...trying to get the sympathy of OFWs. Jas so sad talaga.

Like · Reply ·  31 · December 18 at 8:09pm

 Chris Cabral Dont compare "US OFWs" to you Grace Poe..you dont know what is the flight and OFWs experience especially in the MIDDLE EAST...now your are talking and using OFW like INC before in order to gain media mileage...enough you are already DQ!!!

Like · Reply ·  15 · December 19 at 10:56pm · Edited

 Arturo Catil Noroña Jr. You left your family in America to be a politician in the Philippines. It's a different ballgame for us Filipinos. We left our families to be slaves of other nationalities. You're becoming a comedian Grace

Like · Reply ·  15 · December 18 at 8:28pm · Edited

 Butch Andrada OFWs went out of the country to earn a living try to make a better life for their families. Grace Poe on the other hand already had a good life here as the adoptive daughter of FPJ. She went to America , pledged allegiance to the US and renounced her allegiance to the Philippines. OFW's remain Filipinos!

Like · Reply ·  4 · December 19 at 4:37am

 Mamerto Hernandez Poe is not a hero. she is to say the least a deserter, if not a traitor, onle who renounced her citizenship. She became an American by choice unlike OFWs who leave the country by force of circumstances.

Like · Reply ·  10 · December 18 at 9:26pm

News and FB hi-jack

-  Liza Beltran Arzadon You were never an OFW!
Though Sick and tired of your silly antics, I can't help but comment on your latest role, OFW.
You joined your american husband in the US and raised a family, not to work... See More
Like · Reply ·  3 · December 18 at 11:11pm · Edited
-  Rene Montehermoso Two different worlds Ms. Poe, the OFWS did not renounced their citizenship while you renounced your citizenship to become an american. What do you think of us ordinary citizen, bobo like you.
Like · Reply ·  12 · December 19 at 8:48am · Edited
-  Jov Quio Ang talagang takbo ng utak nilo mang uto. Paano kami maniniwala sa'yo, you left and disowned the Philippines for your convenience. Whilst most of us OFWs left the country to give a much greener pasture for our families back in our homeland and most of us never relinquished our Filipino citizenship.
Like · Reply ·  4 · December 18 at 10:45pm
-  Arlo Custodio DisGrace TraPoe Liamansomething is not only delusional, she's psychotic! Check on the life of OFWs how they sacrifice for their families, including the "shame" of carrying a Philippine passport! This hubris pseudo Filipino trampler of the Constitution not once not twice but thrice gladly renounced the Filipino citizenship afforded her as a foundling to swear oath of allegiance to powerful US of A as its own subjugate for convenience! Bumalik sa Pinas for opportunity by lying about her being! Shameless! Walanghiya! P.I. ka poe! P.a ka poe talaga!
Like · Reply ·  1 · December 19 at 1:05am · Edited
-  Cheen Layman Ang dating term po ng OFW is OCW or Overseas Contract Workers. Their visas are Working Visas and they need to have an employee to sponsor their stay to their country of destination and they are under contract with their employers at a limited (but renew... See More
Like · Reply ·  2 · December 18 at 10:33pm
-  Angel C. Bacani Whats this Mrs. Grace ,assuming ?pretending ,illusioning ? Your out of the race now ,tumigil tigil ka na nga ,your ambition to become the next president has been early terminated ,spare us OFW ,malayo ka sa level namin .
Like · Reply ·  5 · December 18 at 9:51pm
-  Jeffrey Garcia Shame on you..gagamitin pa nito mga OFW..OFW never denounce their citizenship compared to your self.come on DisGrace TraPoe
Like · Reply ·  9 · December 18 at 8:56pm · Edited
-  Roberto Bautista It is really "unfair" for the OFWs for you to compare yourself to them. You went to USA and become an American citizen. How dare you to call yourself a hero. Ano ka siniswerte?
Like · Reply ·  11 · December 18 at 8:41pm · Edited
-  Robin Nolasco Soria Try to reconcile with Senator Serge Osmena, then you will realize that if you only follow his advise to wait for 2022 and run as VP, first maybe your ambition can still be achieve.
Like · Reply · December 19 at 9:19pm
-  Marc Anthony A. Andrada Never namin tinakwil ang bayan Grace!!! Once in your life you made alliance with America and constitution!!!
Like · Reply ·  11 · December 18 at 7:46pm
-  Nazareth Macanagal masiyado ka ng lucky magina sa pangmamahal ni fuj

News and FB hi-jack

GMA NEWS ONLINE BETA
YOUR NEWS AUTHORITY
Dec 22, 2015
2:42 PM CMT+0800

IM READY
PUBLIC SERVICE

advertisement
WITH THE GREAT SAMSUNG GIVEAWAYS!

NEWS Filtered By: News

'SHE'S STILL A CANDIDATE'
Grace Poe to continue campaigning despite disqualification
By JESSICA BARTOLOME, GMA News
Published December 1, 2015 8:11pm

The camp of Sen. Grace Poe on Tuesday said that she will continue campaigning for the presidency in 2016 despite the decision of the Commission on Elections (Comelec) Second Division to cancel her certificate of candidacy.

"Habang tumatakbo itong proseso, tuloy ang kampanya ni Se. Grace Poe. She's still a candidate, she will be candidate," said Valenzuela Mayor Rex Gatchalian, Poe's spokesman.

He added that the decision is but part of a long process.

"Yung lumabas na desisyon ay desisyon lamang ng Second Division," Gatchalian said, noting that it was far from final.

He assured that Poe will exhaust all legal remedies to keep the senator in the running for the country's top post.

"We will make sure that we will appeal the decision," he said.

The mayor reiterated that Poe has sufficiently met the residency requirement for presidential

1605
70
1
1
14
AAA

1
1

· AT A GLANCE ·

NEWS
VP Binay leads in latest Pulse Asia survey on 2016 presidential bets
Passengers start flocking to Araneta Center bus station for holiday break
Rescuers pull first body from rubble of China landslide

MONEY
INFOGRAPHIC
LRT Lines 1 and 2 operating schedule for Christmas and New Year holidays
NO LONGER VALID AS LEGAL TENDER BY JAN. 1, 2016
Bangko Sentral to demonetize P61B worth of peso bills
American woman is PHL's foreign tourist No. 5,000,000 for 2015

News and FB hi-jack

The image shows a screenshot of a Facebook post and its comments. The post is from 'truthslang' and discusses a political candidate's qualifications. The comments are from various users, including Emma Chua, ReuelT, kawawangpinas101, Oakoto, Virus Killer, Always_wear_a_smile, and Simply Jessie. The sidebar on the right shows 'search trends in 2015' with a headline about Steve Harvey, an advertisement for Carmudi, and a 'Social Stream' section featuring GMA News and a photo of a crowd.

truthslang · 21 days ago
OMG...is she really that desperate to be the next president of the phi.? Willing to break the law for that opportunity? That is sick! She really should've heeded her cousin, Sheryl Cruz to forego this election and amass more experience to put her in the best stead for the 2022 presidential race!! Me thinks...the effect of her popularity has gone over her head...and expected it to help pave her way to the coveted #1 post irrespective of her qualifications.
3 · Reply · Share

Emma Chua · 21 days ago
Grace can spare herself the humiliation and withdraw. If people can forgive her for abandoning her Filipino citizenship, she can still run in 2022 once she fulfilled her residency requirements and she has DNA proof that's she's indeed natural-born.
3 · Reply · Share

ReuelT · 20 days ago
"continue campaigning"????
I thought, the Official campaigning season for 2016 elections has not even started. So she has been campaigning illegally too.
2 · Reply · Share

kawawangpinas101 · 20 days ago
Matigas din mukha ni trapoe walng respeto sa batas paano pa pag naging presidente
2 · Reply · Share

Oakoto · 21 days ago
Kandidato pa rin daw sya, kahit wala na sa balota pangalan nya.
2 · Reply · Share

Virus Killer → Oakoto · 20 days ago dilikado to baka magaya sa tatay nya , RIP ang bagsak !
1 · Reply · Share

Always_wear_a_smile · 21 days ago
Nothing to lose Grace, mas mahaba ang kampanya e mas maraming pondo ang papasok. Hala sige magpagamit ka sa mga kaalyado mo na nakiki-ride sa kasikatan mo bilang anak ni FPJ.
1 · Reply · Share

Simply Jessie · 21 days ago
Ang tyagal
1 · Reply · Share

search trends in 2015
Steve Harvey apologizes to 'Miss Philippians' after Miss Universe screwup

advertisement
carmudi
www.carmudi.com.ph
Buy or Sell your Vehicle Today!
100 % FREE!
View More >

Social Stream
GMA News
GMA News
Crowdynews
Advertisement

News and FB hi-jack

The image shows a screenshot of a Facebook post and a news sidebar. The Facebook post is from user 'yam0987' and contains a video titled '3 THE BLACK PROPAGANDA GAME' with a 'Mud Fight' scene. The video shows two people in a muddy environment. The news sidebar on the right is titled 'JUST-IN' and lists several news items with their respective timestamps.

Facebook Post:

- User: yam0987 - 21 days ago
- Text: Okay lang daw sa kanya pagamit sa politiko. Her popularity to ride on will make her millions of money. Akting aktingan na lang doy! Ang importante maraming pera. Kunwari celebrity guest siya sa partido.
- Reactions: 1 Like, 14 Comments, 0 Shares
- User: NAruto - 21 days ago
- Text: HAHAHAAH
- Video: 3 THE BLACK PROPAGANDA GAME (Mud Fight)
- Reactions: 1 Like, 1 Comment, 0 Shares
- User: Virus Killer - 20 days ago
- Text: Puro wrong move tong si grace ngayon naman "continue campaigning" ay naku dadami ang kaso mo ! o baka sabihin na naman nya na HONEST MISTAKE ang pag "continue campaigning" nya
- User: rodolfo r. zabella, jr. - 20 days ago
- Text: I did not know that the campaign period already started. electioneering yata itong si Poe
- User: aram mara - 20 days ago
- Text: what about binay? can we bar a gorilla from running
- User: brunogiordano - 21 days ago
- Text: NOT FINAL YET!!!!!!

News Sidebar (JUST-IN):

- Ariella Arida to Pia Wurtzbach: 'Sa iyo talaga ang korona' 02:32 PM
- Resolution commending Miss Universe Pia Wurtzbach filed in Senate 02:28 PM
- Santa Claus, out of the red, set to get more visitors 02:19 PM
- FOR UNAUTHORIZED SPECIAL PERMIT Ombudsman seeks graft charges against NTC regional director 02:16 PM
- WATCH Here is the reason behind today's Kalyeserye hashtag #ALDUBBetterHalf 02:06 PM
- What does Pia Wurtzbach win aside from the Miss Universe title? 01:59 PM
- LOOK Ken Chan wears ball gown for "Destiny Rose" 01:48 PM
- Mar Roxas unfazed by ranking in Pulse Asia survey 01:48 PM
- STILL BELOW $37 A BARREL Oil recovers ahead of US inventory numbers 01:27 PM
- Boko Haram keeps a million children out of school - UNICEF 01:20 PM
- Pauleen Luna reveals best friend Pia Wurtzbach sounded 'very different' after winning Miss Universe title 01:14 PM

Alam Na FB page

- ▶ Created the “Alam Na” FB page to serve as a source for some of the online Ops.

Alam Na FB page

- ▶ The page currently has 906 followers and still growing.

