Welcome Wolfpack Football Fans:

We want to extend a warm Wolfpack welcome to all of our fans attending our games this season. You are our special guests at Carter-Finley Stadium, and we want your game-day experience to be memorable and a very positive one. Please take a moment to read the information and policies in this brochure. They are intended for your safety and enjoyment.

There is nothing quite like the color and excitement of college football with 50,000 fans cheering for their Wolfpack. Coach Chuck Amato has led NC State to national prominence including four consecutive bowl games and this season we face our toughest schedule ever. And this year we welcome our new ACC member schools.

Ticket demand and interest in Wolfpack football is at an all-time high. The Murphy Football Center was completed last year and our Wolfpack Towers and Media Center will be completed for the 2005 season. It will be the finest such facility in the nation. We also continue moving ahead on other stadium projects including construction of seating in north end zone.

We have so many positives going for our entire athletics program. That's why it's more important than ever that everyone in our Wolfpack family contribute to a spirit of sportsmanship, courtesy and true Wolfpack hospitality when attending games. Let's enthusiastically support our coaches and players and win with class. That's the way we want to represent our great university.

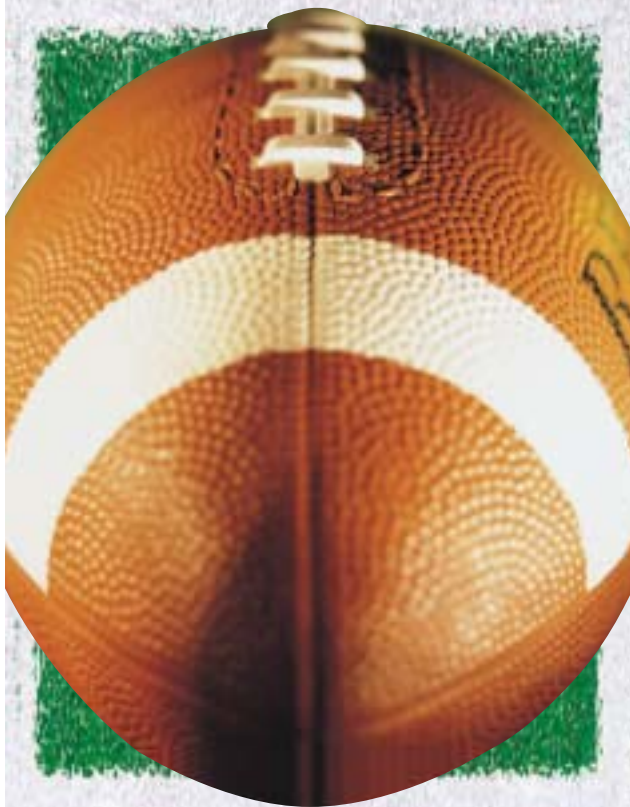

We are moving toward total excellence because of your loyal support. Go Pack!

Sincerely,

How the Wolfpack Club Helps NC State

The NC State Student Aid Association is a non-profit organization founded in 1936, as the fundraising arm for NC State Athletics. The NC State Student Aid Association exists to provide financial support for student-athlete scholarships as well as athletic facility improvements.

The charitable donations of alumni, friends and fans are vital to the long-term growth and success of NC State athletics. The NC State athletics department does not receive state funds for operation. Therefore, money raised by the NC State Student Aid Association is necessary to build and sustain a competitive athletics program in the Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA. For the second straight year, Waste Industries reminds all Wolfpack Fans to do their part to support the "Chuck It" Recycling Program!

The program, a joint effort between Waste Industries and the NC State University Office of Waste Reduction and Recycling, encourages fans to take their cans and bottles to designated "Chuck It Recycling Zones." They're located throughout the parking lots and outside the gates of Carter-Finley Stadium. In addition, "Chuckwagons" will patrol the parking lots of the Stadium and RBC Center prior to all games collecting bottles and cans.

So Wolfpack Fans, enjoy your tailgating in 2004. And when you're done, don't forget to

"Chuck It."
