

DAS NORDLAND

FALLSCHIRMJAGER HANDBOOK

Section I. Dress code

All soldats should take pride in their uniform and are required unless told so to wear it at ALL group places while events occur. This includes meetings, trainings, raids, etc.

Section II. Respect and Loyalty

All soldats MUST show upmost respect to all higher ups at all times unless it is in a joking manner. Loyalty to the fatherland should be shown at all time. We are not casuals we are an elite infantry division, lets act that way.

Section III. Surrender Policy

No men of mine shall EVER surrender. Not only is it a disgrace to the fatherland it is betrayal of your comrades. You will never fallback unless ordered so by a higher up you will at least hold your ground.

Section IV. Attendance Policy

You being an elite soldat could be the final factor on whether the fatherland wins or loses a raid. As a result CONSTANT activity is required of you. Failure to frequently participate in raids and trainings will result in punishment and removal. If you know you will have to be away for a few days let a higher up know.

Section V. Idiocy Policy

Being an idiot is one of the worst things you can do. There are so many ways to fall in this category that it simply cannot be listed. In the end if a higher up deems you are too idiotic or immature you will be removed without question.

Section VI. Spelling and Grammar

These two things must be used at all times while on active duty. Active duty is considered being at a training, raid, meeting, etc.

Section VII. Relief of Duty

You will NEVER leave the unit without proper dismissal from a higher up. You will be marked as a traitor until you apologize publically for your idiotic mistake.
