

Carnival[®]

March 21, 2016

Greetings from the bridge,

I trust you are enjoying your cruise so far aboard the beautiful Carnival Victory. I just need to take a moment of your time to provide you some information regarding a change to our scheduled itinerary.

Due to strong winds in excess of 35 knots which would make docking unsafe, I'm very sorry to say, we are forced to cancel our visit to Freeport today. We will now have a fun day at sea and proceed directly to Nassau for our scheduled arrival tomorrow. However, the good news is we were able to secure a visit to Freeport for your enjoyment on Wednesday.

Below is our revised itinerary:

Day	Port of Call	Arrive	Depart
Mon	Fun Day @ Sea
Tue	Nassau, The Bahamas	8:00 AM	5:00 PM
Wed	Freeport, The Bahamas	8:00 AM	5:00 PM
Thu	Port Canaveral (Orlando), FL	7:00 AM

We will make every effort to adjust pre-purchased shore excursions for Freeport to the new day and time. In the event one of your tours is affected, our Shore Excursion team will notify you individually.

We apologize for this unexpected turn of events and thank you for your understanding.

Please continue to enjoy all the great entertainment and fun activities we have in store for you. My entire team is dedicated to making your time with us fun and memorable!

Sincerely,

Captain Isidoro Renda
