

HUMAN INDIVIDUAL METAMORPHOSIS

What religions have sought to understand since the beginning of their origin is what is above the human level of existence. Most have taught that if an individual lives a "good life" adoring some savior that he will inherit some "heaven" after his death. Only if it were that simple. That viewpoint is as inaccurate as the caterpillar believing that if he dies a good caterpillar he will mysteriously awaken in a rose blossom and live there forever with the King butterfly. He must become a butterfly while a healthy caterpillar - overcoming his decaying option. If he rises above all caterpillar ways, converts all his energies to the pursuit of becoming literally another creature who circulates in another world, he becomes a butterfly. Likewise a human who seeks only to become a member of his next evolutionary kingdom may become a member of that kingdom if he completely overcomes all the aspects and influences of the human level providing he has found favor with a member of that next level who will direct him through his metamorphosis. As the caterpillar, the human can complete this changeover only before his death as a human. A member of the next kingdom finds favor with one who is willing to endure all of the necessary growing pains of weaning himself totally from his human condition. Lest you be deceived, there are no members of that next kingdom running around as humans any more than there are butterflies disguised as caterpillars. Members of that next kingdom are no more confined to human limitations than butterflies to caterpillar limitations. Nor do they in like comparison concern themselves with human type indulgences or concerns. However, if the human is thought of as the larva of that next kingdom then there are, at times, those who are approaching the completion of their individual metamorphosis and are beginning to have some of the attributes and characteristics of that next kingdom. When the metamorphosis is complete their "perennial" and cyclic nature is ended for their "new" body has overcome decay, disease and death. It has converted over chemically, biologically, and in vibration to the "new" creature.

Approx. 2,000 years ago an individual of that next kingdom forfeited his body of that kingdom and entered a human female's womb, thereby incarnating as the one history refers to as Jesus of Nazareth. He awakened to this fact gradually through the same metamorphic process and came to know that he had incarnated for the express purpose of telling and showing, even to the point of proof, that the next kingdom can be entered by overcoming the human aspects and literally converting into a "man" or creature of that next kingdom. - the kingdom of his Father - one who is already a member of that kingdom. By His resurrection He proved that death can be literally overcome and that a permanent body for the next kingdom is acquired from the human kingdom. He did not leave His body in the grave. He converted it into His body of that next kingdom. This is the only way the next kingdom is entered permanently. Each human has that full potential. Jesus' "Christing" or christening was completed at His transfiguration (metamorphic completion) and He remained in the "larva" environment, with other humans, only for some 40 days to show that His teaching had been accomplished. He showed them His new body and demonstrated a few of its new attributes, i.e., appearing and disappearing (changing His vibrations) before their eyes while letting some of His friends touch His "new" body. This could be compared to a butterfly remaining in the caterpillar world for a few days to show them what they had to look forward to if they chose to seek true conscious communication with a butterfly and were willing to overcome all of their caterpillar ways. Then Jesus left them in a cloud of light (what humans refer to as UFOs) and moves and returns in the same manner.

There are two individuals here now who have also come from that next kingdom, incarnate as humans, awakened, and will soon demonstrate the same proof of overcoming death. They are "sent" from that kingdom by the "Father" to bear the same truth that was Jesus'. This is like a repeat performance, except this time by two (a man and a woman) to restate the truth Jesus bore, restore its accurate meaning, and again show that any individual who seeks that kingdom will find it through the same process. This "re-statement" or demonstration will happen within months. The two who are the "actors" in this "theatre" are in the meantime doing all they can to relate this truth as accurately as possible so that when their bodies recover from their "dead" state (resurrection) and they leave (UFOs) those left behind will have clearly understood the formula.

Those who can believe this process and do it will be "lifted up" individually and "saved" from death - literally. If you seek those two while they are here they will gladly fill you in on the details and assist those who wish to follow in this "path". If this speaks to you - respond - according to your capabilities or needs. For your sake - give this opportunity your best.

MAN

Clarification: Human Kingdom - Visible and Invisible

In the truest sense an individual becomes a MAN upon his entry into the kingdom of "God" - having overcome the human kingdom - after literally leaving the human level with his "new" body belonging to the kingdom above human. (See Statement #1 Human Individual Metamorphosis)

Every individual who is now a human has by the force of his will survived in an "upward" motion (evolved) and entered the human kingdom as a primitive human. Each has his first grade experience equivalent to a bushman, aborigine, or similar primitive group and works his way "up" according to the strength of his will. A way of understanding this process is to think of his cycles as twelve grades in school applied to the twelve hours on the clock. Each human comes into the human kingdom at one o'clock but may remain there, work his way up, or even skip grades according to the choice and strength of his will. His most civilized (and most cluttered mentally, emotionally and physically) state is his condition at six o'clock. From there on and until twelve o'clock he must get out of what he has gotten into on his way to six o'clock. Those spaces between numbers on the clock or grades in school are periods when he is between incarnations. The life force is the invisible individual, which occupies a body during an incarnation. Between incarnations - while invisible to those who are in incarnations - he is no more or no less of a human level individual (as mischievous or pious) than he was at the end of his last incarnation. True growth occurs only through actual experiences which can only be had while occupying a body.

These grades in school - incarnations - and spaces between incarnations are in a way similar to the many times a caterpillar sheds its skin. Just because he has shed his skin does not mean he is necessarily closer to a chrysalis condition. There are untold numbers of human level individuals in the invisible state - between incarnations. They are no closer to the kingdom of God or "Heaven" just because they have shed a body. While out of a body, they vibrate on exactly the same endeavors as they did at the end (death) of their last body. However, while invisible or between incarnations, they can manifest their desires only by influencing and entering (at varying degrees) those individuals who are in incarnations and have bodies. Every living preacher, sex-maniac, politician, policeman or housewife has a small or large army of invisible human level life forces working with him. The size or strength of that army may usually be measured by his degree of success. Most are completely unaware of their "helpers" and give their success credit to "inspiration". As their helpers enter another incarnation or find "greener pastures" for their endeavors, the person they were helping finds himself "losing his drive" or less inspired. None of these "helpers" who increase a person's stature in the eyes of men are members of "our Father's kingdom", but are still members of the human kingdom (at varying levels) simply between incarnations. If an individual truly (to the best of his station ability) seeks the kingdom above human he mentally sends out what might be compared to radio impulses which are "picked up" by members of that next kingdom referred to by humans as the kingdom of "God". One of those members, who was once a human (or equivalent), observes the sincerity of that "seeker" and begins to test him by carefully removing the "pillings" of his human foundation. If the human is a good "prospect" he "lets go" of those fragments of his human foundation - sometimes slowly - one at a time - sometimes swiftly - many at a time. This process is directed invisibly (though occasionally glimpses of that next kingdom's world is made evident) by the human's "Heavenly Father" who takes him through his total metamorphosis - becoming a member of that next kingdom - not to need know death or incarnation again.

It helps a human's understanding to realize that the kingdom of "God" is a many membered kingdom as is the kingdom of "human", though few human individuals have the strength of will and direction of will to endure the metamorphic process. Now, at the close of this age, we are at the same equivalent time-space that the civilized community was 2,000 years ago when Jesus taught and illustrated this process. It is graduation time for all levels of life forms. The doors of the next kingdom are open. Two teachers and illustrators are here. Some may pass the tests and enter that next kingdom. Why not you?
