

I have seen your advertisement at the student newspaper and I would like applying for the job... verb tense, preposition, gerund versus infinitive

I am 26 years old. I am from Valparaiso, where I live with my parents... subject-verb repetition

I have learnt to work under pressure because of the fact of dealing with costumers and sorting out stressful situations... British conjugation, subordinating clause, spelling, verb choice

I am available for an interview from Monday to Friday... preposition usage

I would be grateful if you consider my application... desperation versus appreciation

Dear sir or madam... formality, connotation, alternatives... To whom it may concern...

I would like to apply for the position of lifeguard at the Corona Beach which I saw advertised in the Sunday's newspaper... gratuitous articles, subordinate clause

I am a professional swimmer, who can perfectly ensure the safety of adults and children; also, I enjoy working with people every day... overconfidence, alternative stressing optimism, every day versus everyday, everyday versus in general

At the present, I am working at the municipal swimming pool in this town but it would not give me the opportunity to get more experience... gratuitous article, negative implication, professional advancement

To take or do a course... I got my raft license... got versus have, possessive article, raft versus rafting every morning during the week... every weekday morning... convenience versus dedication

Hellow, I'm Steve Jones and one of my reasons for applying is to be near the sea... informality, misguided priorities, lack of clarity

I'm 27 years old and I always loved the sea and its environment... contraction, verb tense, sentence consolidation

The advertised position would allow me to show up my abilities as a swimmer keeping people safe... showing versus using, clarification, implicit philanthropy

I'm totally available to attend an interview whenever you want... contraction, admirable enthusiasm, overstatement, rephrasing

I look forward to hearing from you in a near future... article usage, clarification of intent

A friend of mine told me about the job and , I would really like to get it... informality, better alternatives

I have won a lot of prizes for my very good performance as a swimmer... informality, wordiness, alternatives

I'm a very sociable person who enjoy the contact with new people... conjugation, gratuitous article, verb choice

I'm a teacher of English but I decided to do other things before dedicating my life for the teaching... contraction, profession versus degree versus identity, verb tense, clarification

My name is Barbara Holmes and I am writing because I am really interested in apply for this job... really versus very, stem versus gerund, clarification of job

I did a swimming course three months ago, so I have a qualification on it... did versus take, qualified versus having qualifications, preposition usage

Currently I am working in a restaurant as a waitress... preposition usage, redundancy given nature of job

I want this opportunity of job because I know that I am good and also this job would be perfect for my curriculum... want versus look forward to, goodness versus candidacy, implicit opportunism

I used to work at a Sports Company where I taught surfing and kayaking during 2 years... proper nouns, good vocabulary, imperfect past, during versus for, number spelling conventions

I put a lot of effort in everything I do and I am also very responsible. Punctuality is the most important virtue I have... a lot versus great, in versus into, relevance of punctuality

Not only saving lives but also enjoying beautiful beach views and landscapes, make me really happy... informality, negative construction

I am available to attend an interview whenever you consider it appropriate... moral implications of appropriateness, better alternatives, use of interview as verb

I am consider myself very suitable for this kind of job, due to my vast experience in the field of Swimming and service assistance, even more guard, protect and save people... elementary grammar, kind of versus specific job, as a swimmer and in the service industry, incoherent transition to even more clause

Currently, I spend 3 days a week to teach how to swim for children for free in a community of my neighborhood, unfortunately it is my only job, unpaid work, by far, because of that the reason of my application; consequently, I am immediate availability... coherence issues, implicit irresponsibility, adverb usage

I hope you really consider my application for the job, thanks for your time... misplaced adverb, comma splice, informal speech

I am writing for you because I have read your advertisement on the local bulletin board and I want to apply for it... for versus to, gratuitous phrase, in response to the advertised position

I made a course after I finished high school in Lifeguarding techniques and knowledge about perils of the deep blue, and I had been working 6 years at the beach, but in other regions; Pay was good, but people are very unconscious about being out of perils... confusing verb choice and tenses, repetition of vocabulary

I will be able during the whole week to attend your phone call in case of an interview... emphasis on call rather than interview

I would be happy to attend an interview at any time... happy versus pleased, whenever your schedule allows, whenever most convenient for you

I enjoy doing water sports, all summers I go to the beach to do surfing... gratuitous verb, all versus every, to surf

I am studying Physical Education in a prestigious University in Madrid, my area is swimming... in versus at, a versus that, area versus major

I am always keeping eye on the rest of the people... the rest of the people, gratuitous article, like phrase itself

Despite that I am happy working at my school I would like to pass it to my brother and find a new job due to I have to deal with all the problems of my school by my own and it tires me a lot... run-on sentence, technical issues

I would like to apply for the job of Beach Lifeguard Assistant I saw advertised in a newspaper... subordinating transition

I love helping people as much as I enjoy running along the beach and going to the gym every night because of my building body... along versus on, body building, to work out, redundant qualification

I would appreciate you consider my application... passive voice

Recently, I have been graduated from the National Naval Academy, from where I acquired an extensive knowledge of first aids and I am a strong swimmer because I have worked at the beach as a lifeguard during my academic years... multiple issues to be addressed line-by-line

I recently quitted my last job because of personal problems... conjugation, due to versus because of, issues versus problems, for personal reasons

At present I am in charge of security in an important company. I have worked here for two years since I retired of the Navy because of an accident during a routine checkup. However, I am completely recovered now... at a company, here versus there, misuse of office equipment, peculiarity of accident

I have a vast experience dealing with people because of my former part-time job... gratuitous article, inconsistency of vastness with part-time-ness

I was really into it [my former job] but now is getting more and more boring every time, the number of people that go swimming has been decreasing faster every time and sometimes there is nothing to do... omitted subject pronoun, meaning of every time, that versus who, convoluted articulation

I am twenty five years old and I am from Viña del Mar, but currently I am living in San Felipe... subject-verb repetition, use of but rather than and

I am available for interviews on mondays, wednesdays and saturdays during the morning and tuesdays and thursdays in the afternoon, so you can call me to my phone number... capitalization, singular-plural issue, use of so

I saw in a public newspaper the advertisement about the lifeguard assistant required by you... need for sentence reconstruction

I saw your advertisement in a local student's newspaper and I am interested in applying to become a lifeguard assistant... adjective versus possessive adjective, applying for the position of rather than to become

I would like to work [as a lifeguard] so I could help in some way to decrease the quantity of persons who drown every year... overwritten

I will wait for your answer... I look forward to your response