What makes us different?

- 1. Group holidays - Each holiday has a minimum number of clients so you are sure to meet players of a similar standard.
- 2. All packages are hosted - You will have your own personal holiday guide to ensure all your needs are catered for.
- 3. 5 star coaching - Our coaching team are of the highest level and are very passionate about their sport. Many have also played and still play at the very top level enabling them to pass on their valuable experience.
- 4. VIP treatment - From your initial booking to your departure at the airport we look after you and make sure you feel special.

Active Away organise group tennis, health & fitness and skiing/snowboarding holidays to exclusive 4 & 5 star resorts... giving you the chance to hone your skills, meet new friends, and share great experiences whilst having lots of fun. We work in association with David Lloyd Leisure along with other clubs and individuals providing market leading active holidays.

An Active Away holiday is for anyone who is passionate about sports, whether you are a couple looking for that extra fun break, a single traveller wanting to meet new people or a club/coach wanting to organise that special experience for your members.
