Shipping: We use USPS Priority Mail for domestic and International shipping. All shipping costs stated on the webstore include full insurance against loss or damage. If you prefer to use another courier like FedEx, DHL or UPS please include a pre-paid return shipment label with your package or provide us with your shipper's account number and check the appropriate box on this form.

Unclaimed Items: We cannot hold customer items indefinitely. If we have not heard back from you within 30 days of work completion, items may be disposed of.

Correspondence and Communication: We highly recommend using email to correspond regarding your job. This way you have everything in writing and there is no confusion. Furthermore, due to our work load, you will many times get an answer to your questions faster by email.

WORK ORDER AUTHORIZATION

I hereby authorize Duck Parts Unlimited to perform the previously described work on the enclosed parts. By signing below I acknowledge that I own or have the authority to order the above mentioned work on the items shipped and the information provided is true to the best of my knowledge.

If I am doing work on behalf of a customer, I have verified proper ownership and will gain his/her permission to have this procedure done. I will collect his/her telephone number full name, address and VIN.

If this is my personal vehicle, I am enclosing a copy of my Government issued picture I.D. and a copy of the vehicle title and/or registration (not required for all programming, ask us if you are not sure).
