

MICHELIN

The Family Trade.

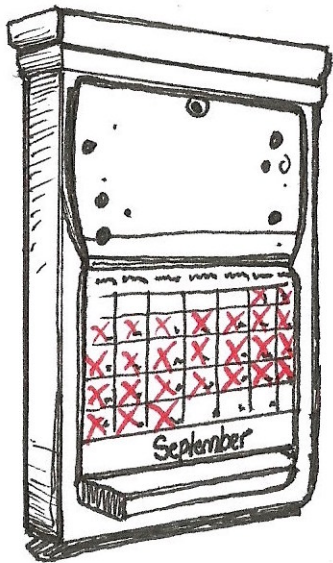

hey bud how's it goin?
you getting many hours at work?
you should give some thought into moving back home.

if you work at michelin you can pay back your loan in no time!

You'll get the hours, so how bout' it bud?

I can get you a job there no problem.

I look at my parents calendar hanging at home.

Filled in with big red X's, Counting off the months/days that i've put off working there.

I'll have to think about it
Over this double-double dad.

I'll face the inevitable and live here the rest of my life, and slowly forget of life
that exists outside
of this town.
