A credit card is required to secure your reservation. Payment of the final bill is due in full at the end of the event payable in cash, by credit card or company check. 20% service charge will apply where applicable. The beverage minimum does not include service charges or incidentals. Guests are limited to space reserved for this group and may not occupy seating in other areas.

Charges will be based on the greater of the confirmed number of guests or actual number of guests served. All guests must be 21 years of age and have proper identification.

DROP reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone without proper identification or those who do not comply with our proper dress code. (Refer to FAQ page on our website www.dropchicago.com for details.)

DROP reserves the right to refuse alcoholic beverages to any guest who may become intoxicated. DROP will immediately end the package with no refund if guests involved in a drink package "pass back" drinks to non-package patrons. DROP is not responsible for lost or stolen items. The customer is responsible for any property damages or other damages incurred as the result of the event.

Additional gratuity may be applied to events requiring catering, set-up and breakdown. DROP will not be held liable for any food borne illnesses or illness related to off-site catering or food brought to DROP from the customer or an outside source. No signage, balloons, or other decorations will be permitted without pre-approval from DROP.

Contract terms are subject to change.
