

Your CHS summer 2016 read is by Ruta Sepetys

guilt is a hunter.

salt

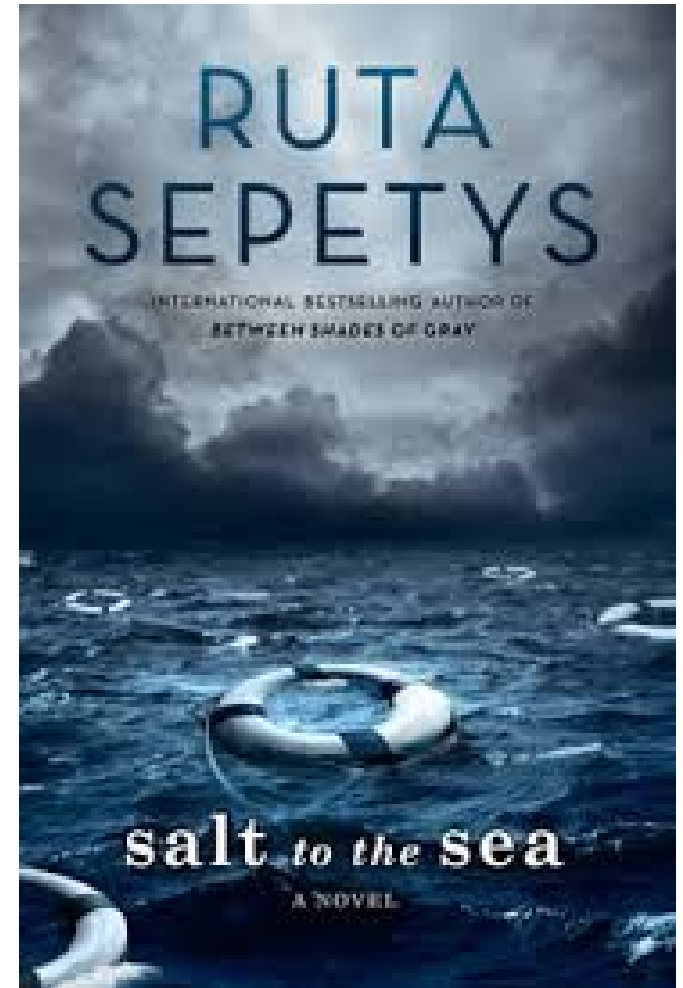

fear is a hunter.

to the

shame is a hunter.

sea

fate is a hunter.

Dive into a Great Book!

- All CHS students will read ONE REQUIRED book during the summer break.
Grades 9 through 12 have been assigned the same text.
- If possible, purchasing the book is preferable. Local libraries are also a good source to find the book.
- Reading this summer is a good way to spend some time and can improve your English grade in quarter one!
- Scoring a 75 or better on the assessment will earn you two points on your quarter one average in English.

About the Book

- ★ VIEW the Book Trailer
- ★ World War II is drawing to a close in East Prussia and thousands of refugees are on a desperate trek toward freedom, many with something to hide.
- ★ Among them are Joana, Emilia, and Florian, whose paths converge en route to the ship that promises salvation, the Wilhelm Gustloff. Forced by circumstance to unite, the three find their strength, courage, and trust in each other.
- ★ Just when it seems freedom is within their grasp, tragedy strikes. Not country, nor culture, nor status matter as all ten thousand people—adults and children alike—aboard must fight for the same thing: survival.
- ★ Told in alternating points of view, this work of historical fiction is inspired by the real-life tragedy that was the sinking of the Wilhelm Gustloff—the greatest maritime disaster in history.

Wilhelm Gustloff and S-13
JANUARY 1945
(note that all routes are approximate)

Soviet Sub S-13
departs Hangö on January 11.

Originally, the Gustloff was to unload naval personnel in Kiel, then carry on to Flensburg to drop off refugees.

On January 26, the S-13
joins two other submarines to patrol off the coast of Memel.

Wilhelm Gustloff torpedoed
January 30, 1945 9:16PM
55.07N 17.41E

Before dawn on January 30, Marinesko heads to the Danzig without informing superiors.

The Gustloff leaves
Gotenhafen around 12:30PM on January 30.
The S-13 begins tracking it sometime between 7PM and 8PM.

0 km 50 100 150 200 250

Tools to Help You Understand the Message

Use the bookmark “accordion” provided to keep track of character details

View the author’s introduction to the book

View Youtube clips on the history of the doomed Wilhelm Gustloff and/or informal book reviews

Read the *New York Times* Book Review

Utilize the study guide to prepare for the test