IN CONVERSATION: CAROLE COLEMAN & PAUL WILLIAMS

FRIDAY 22ND,
CHURCH OF IRELAND, 7PM, €10

Carole Coleman is a broadcaster, author, wife and mother. She reports in Ireland and abroad for RTE. Books include Alleluia America – an Irish Journalist in Bush Country and Battle for the White House – an account of the 2008 presidential election in which Hillary Clinton lost the Democratic nomination to Barack Obama. A Leitrim native, Carole lives in Carrick-on-Shannon with her husband and two daughters.

Paul Williams is a multiple award-winning investigative/crime journalist whose work has included major exposes of organised crime over the past almost 30 years. Paul Williams is the author of ten best-selling books mostly involving exposes of organised crime and he has also written/presented a number of major TV series. He is a proud native of Ballinamore, County Leitrim and has always maintained his strong links to town and county.

This event is supported by Boyle Chamber of Commerce.

PADDY CASEY SUPPORTED BY BRENDAN CLEARY

FRIDAY 22ND JULY,

DALY'S STOREHOUSE, 9.30PM, €15

After a five year hiatus, Paddy Casey returned last year with his fourth album The Secret Life Of. It was recorded, produced and mixed at home in Paddy's kitchen by Paddy and Pat Donne. "Pat is responsible for me not throwing away a lot of songs, 'Saints and Sinners' included. This will be my first completely independent record, it's called The Secret Life Of because it's a throwback to a recording style I used to have before I signed a record deal".

Paddy finished touring his third album Addicted To Company in mid 2009 and decided then that it was time to make an album on his own, without a label. He wanted to let the songs come naturally, but found that, almost immediately, they came along in droves. So he began recording them all over the next few years, and in the last 6 months he chose the 11 tracks that make up the new album The Secret Life Of.

Paddy is supported by Brendan Cleary, a 20 year old singer/songwriter who has been learning his trade for the past 5 years. When he's not playing music, you'll find Brendan on the sports field playing rugby which he has previously played at an international level... But that's another story!

BOYLE HISTORIC WALK WITH DANNY TIERNAN

SATURDAY 23RD JULY,

MEET AT KING HOUSE, 11AM, €5

Shane is a Dublin based clarinetist who has just completed the BMus programme in DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama with Dr Paul Roe and was recently accepted to take part in the 2016 RTE National Symphony Orchestra mentoring scheme in April and June.

Emma began learning flute at the age of seven and, in 2011, she was accepted into the DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama where she has just completed a Bachelor in Music Performance under the tutelage of Ciaran O'Connell. Emma is a multiple prize winner at Feis Ceoil, Newpark Feis, DIT competitions and was a bursary finalist in Sligo Feis 2014.

They are accompanied by Mary Scarlett who is in constant demand as an accompanist for singers, instrumentalists, ensembles, choral and musical societies.

READINGS: GERRY BOLAND, ELAINE GASTON & KATE DEMPSEY

SATURDAY 23RD JULY,

DRUMINILRA FARM KITCHEN, 4PM, €5

Gerry, Elaine and Kate will be reading from their work. Local author, Gerry Boland will read from his recently-published second collection, In the Space Between.

Elaine Gaston's debut collection The Lie of the Land was published with Doire Press in July 2015 and she currently has work in The Yellow Nib, Poetry Ireland Review: the rising generation, The Stinging Fly and The Ogham Stone.

Kate Dempsey's poetry is published in many journals in Ireland and the UK. She runs the Poetry Divas, a glittery collective of women poets who blur the wobbly boundary between page and stage. Her debut collection, The Space Between, was published by Doire Press in 2016.

Kate Dempsey will also be hosting a workshop on Saturday 23rd July at 2pm and Gerry will be holding a poetry workshop on Saturday 30th July at 11am. See workshop section for details.

DRAMA: LOVELY LEITRIM BY JOHN MCDWYER PERFORMED BY BEEZNEEZ THEATRE COMPANY

SATURDAY 23RD JULY,

ST JOSEPH'S HALL, 8PM, €15

BeezneeZ celebrate twenty years of touring with a major revival of John McDwyer's first stage play, Lovely Leitrim. Lovely Leitrim tells the story of the Gallagher family who farm on a Leitrim hillside. Armed with the certainty of motherhood, Mary Gallagher is convinced she knows what is best for her family in the event of her death. Her insistence on being granted her dying wish ultimately fragments her family and results in a cataclysmic evening in a London pub where her eldest son finally makes peace with himself and with the world. The unbridled wit of the dialogue in Lovely Leitrim sugars the sadness of a passing way of life.

MARIA DOYLE KENNEDY FOLLOWED BY DJ SET FROM TURN IT ON

SATURDAY 23RD JULY

DALY'S STOREHOUSE, 10PM, €10

Maria is an Irish singer, actor and filmmaker. She has sung live with Snow Patrol and has spent more than two decades performing all over the world before audiences at Glastonbury, Oxygen and the Cambridge Folk Festival, and in small, intimate theatres. She honed her craft as a performer with Hothouse Flowers and The Black Velvet Band before performing in the movie The Commitments and by then, Maria's reputation was strong enough to earn her a place singing on the album The Lady Sings The Blues alongside Aretha Franklin, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald and Nina Simone.

"One of the finest voices Ireland has ever produced"
Hot Press Magazine

Why not stay and join DJs from Turn it On to celebrate 80's music on vinyl!

ENSEMBLE AVALON

SUNDAY 24TH JULY, KING HOUSE, 6PM, €10

"one of the highlights of my listening"-

Julian Haylock, The Strad.

Ensemble Avalon are a critically acclaimed Irish piano trio, originally formed in 2006. Founding members Ioana Petcu Coaln (violin), Gerald Peregrine (cello) and Michael McHale (piano) have performed together across Ireland, America and Italy, exploring standard trio repertoire, as well as commissioning new works by Irish composers. 2008 saw the release of their debut CD on the RTE lyric fm label, which was critically lauded in Ireland and the UK, in publications such as BBC Music Magazine, the Irish Times and the Strad, which chose it as their CD selection of the month. The trio recently curated a series of chamber recitals in the NCH Dublin, and have presented several sold out series at the Hugh Lane Gallery in Dublin and have performed regularly on RTE radio and TV. Their programme this evening will include work by Haydn, Piazzola and Smetana.

PHIL COULTER

SUNDAY 24TH JULY,

ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH, 8PM, €25

It's now more than twenty years since the distinctive sound of tranquility, featuring Phil's piano and orchestra, first seduced the whole of Ireland with its easy melodic charm, before going on to make believers around the world. With record sales now counted in millions, as well as a Grammy nomination, several appearances in the White House and sold out dates in prestige venues like Carnegie Hall, it's been quite a ride.

He is as productive as ever and is currently riding the crest of yet another wave. Acting as composer, music director and record producer he is enjoying the phenomenal U.S success of his project Celtic Thunder, having notched up five consecutive number ones in Billboard's World Music Charts and collected two World Album of the year awards. In fact, in a recent Celtic Music Chart on Amazon he was responsible for 9 out of the 20 entries, including his own orchestral album Heartland at number 2! His last production HERITAGE climbed to No. 11 in the Billboard Top 200 album chart, meaning that he had enjoyed chart entries in every decade since the 60's.

This event is supported by Stewarts Oil.

SATURDAY 30TH JULY

PLEASURE GROUNDS, 2.15PM & 4.15PM, FREE

Angels in the Park, a powerful, funny and inspiring series of five 10-minute plays set and performed in a park, is back by popular demand after charming audiences in famous parks and gardens in Ireland, London and Paris since 2013. Shiva Productions are delighted to perform this show in the west of Ireland for the first time. Described as “a beautiful piece of work” these skilfully crafted tiny plays, exploring themes of mortality, family and the human need to connect, were carefully selected and are written by new emerging Irish talent. They feature some well-known and talented actors including veteran Irish actor Des Nealon (Red Rock, Bachelor’s Walk), Fair City Actors Margaret Toomey and Charleigh Bailey, Red Rock actor Geraldine McAlinden, Rob Harrington, Muireann Darcy, and Roscommon native Michael Heavey. The plays are directed and produced by Aoibhinn Marie Gilroy, a Dubliner whose mother hails from Ballintober.

The show will go on come rain or shine, so pack a brolly! Audiences are advised to bring a light portable chair, picnic rug or cushion as there will be no seating. Audiences will be led to different locations on the grounds for a duration of approximately 1 hour 10 minutes. Not suitable for young children. Some strong language in parts. Parental guidance advised.

DIT CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC & DRAMA CAROLAN ENSEMBLE DIRECTED BY LAOISE O’BRIEN

SATURDAY 30TH JULY, KING HOUSE, 1PM, €5

The Carolan ensemble comprise Cliona Doris (harp), Aimee Farrell Courtney (bodhrán). Stephen Hurley (accordion) and Laoise O’Brien (recorders).

Laoise O’Brien has performed and recorded with numerous ensembles in Ireland and abroad, and collaborates with diverse musicians to perform a wide range of repertoires from the 12th to the 21st centuries.

The programme will include both Irish and European music from the middle ages through to Turlough O’Carolan with a spotlight on William Shakespeare.

AN EVENING OF POETRY & PROSE WITH THE MOYLURG WRITERS & ROSS DONLON

SATURDAY 30TH JULY, KING HOUSE, 5.30PM, FREE

Ross Donlon has published seven collections of poetry and his poems have appeared in journals in his native Australia, the United States and New Zealand as well as Poetry Ireland and Crannog magazines here in Ireland. The winners of the Poetry Competition will be announced at this event.

Writers Gerry Boland and Patricia O’Reilly will be hosting workshops on Saturday 30th July. See workshop section for more details.

THE HENRY GIRLS

SATURDAY 30TH JULY, KING HOUSE, €15, 8PM

The Henry Girls are three sisters from Co. Donegal. Their music is infused with the rich cultural heritage of their native Donegal but with a transatlantic flavour. Over the last number of years they have become one of the finest Irish exponents of folk/roots music.

Their shimmering harmonies and delicate musicianship have been revered since their early days but in the last number of years they have also been renowned for their songwriting skills. They have successfully learned to interweave their traditional roots with contemporary elements, earning them both commercial success and spectacular critical acclaim on both sides of the Atlantic. The sisters have toured and collaborated on various other music projects, most notably Mary Black, Imelda May, Clannad, Sharon Shannon, The Hothouse Flowers, Donal Lunny, Altan and Dervish.

POETRY WORKSHOP: MEMORY WITH KATE DEMPSEY

SATURDAY 23RD JULY, 2-3.30PM, €10

BOYLE ENTERPRISE CENTRE

Memories are increasing disposable in our throwaway society of soundbites and changeable fashion, process, ideas and images. Too many things are about speed up, speed up, newer, better, shinier. But these very memories we have are potentially a rich source of inspiration for writing. We can preserve the moments, places, people, thoughts and relationships, be they beautiful, mundane or uncomfortable, by capturing them in poems, to hold and to keep. This workshop is for anyone who would like to begin to write poetry. It will be a safe, supporting environment so you can leave with the draft of at least one piece of writing with energy and confidence.

BOYLE SINGERS WORKSHOP WITH RITA GALLAGHER

THURSDAY 28TH JULY

DODD'S THE CRESCENT BAR, €5, 8PM-9.30PM

(INCLUDES ADMISSION TO SINGERS NIGHT)

Rita Gallagher is from Ballymacahill, Frosses in County Donegal, and is noted as one of the finest traditional Irish singers. She is a three-time winner of the Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann All-Ireland title for female singing in English and regularly participates in festivals, workshops, and singing events throughout the country. Rita has also toured throughout Britain, Canada and the U.S. with Comhaltas.

Rita's recordings include The May Morning Dew, a collection of 20 traditional songs in English released in 2010, and her 14-song collection, Easter Snow, recorded in 1997. Her low, beautifully rich voice, eloquent ornamentation and restrained delivery make Rita a compelling and much admired singer.
