IMRF retirement workshop:

The Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund is offering a series of free workshops. The two-hour seminars, held in conjunction with the University of Illinois Extension Office's family life educators, highlight the benefits of goal setting, the importance of self-inventory, and the differences between various types of bucket lists and goals. A workshop in Oak Brook will run from 10 a.m. until noon Thursday, July 7, at the DoubleTree by Hilton, 1909 Spring Road. Registration is required. IMRF retirees can register online through Member Access at imrf.org. Non-IMRF members can register by calling (800) 275-4673, from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on weekdays.

Music Mondays in Wheaton:

Wheaton Park District will sponsor Music Mondays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. July 11, 18 and 25 at Memorial Park, 208 W. Union Ave. First up is The Chicago Experience, a Chicago tribute band, performing on July 11. On July 18, Sistah Beth with Twist and the Groove Machine bring more than 125 years of combined musical experience to the stage. And on July 25, Libido Funk Circus offers a mix of different tunes from the 1960s through today. Music Mondays is organized by the district's summer interns, giving them opportunities to develop professional skills in marketing, event management and sponsorship. Road closure in Lombard:

DuPage County's transportation division is reminding residents of this week's planned closure of the Highland Avenue bridge over Butterfield Road in Lombard. Weather permitting, the bridge will close for repairs on Wednesday. The bridge is tentatively scheduled to reopen in mid-August. Motorists are encouraged to follow posted detours. Visit dupageco.org/DOT/road_construction/HighlandAve.

See classic cars on Thursdays:

The Geneva Classic Car Show is 6 to 8 p.m. Thursdays in July and August at the Kane County courthouse parking lot, 100 S. Third St. Admission is free. Check out the antique, custom build, muscle and sport cars. Enjoy treats and a DJ. Downtown shops, pubs and eateries also stay open late — several offer evening entertainment. Visit genevachamber.com.
