
Police Auctions in Edmonton Alberta.

There is a ton of items from seizures and collateral from crime. Whether it is bicycles, Electronics, Rolex watches, Gold Jewellery or vehicles, you can find them at various auction houses. You see by contract this merchandise has to go to auction. You can get the opportunity to bid on theft recovery items at places like Kastners. Auction houses like this usually get 3 days to 2 week notices when the merchandise is going to go to auction. You need to stay informed otherwise you could miss out on opportunities to own this merchandise that is a) very unique and valuable or b) is Very new and will sell well below retail value. Sign up here for police auctions from Kastners

If you have never been to any auction including a police auction, it is recommended that you read this article before you attend: First Time At An Auction

Theft Recovery items are only a small selection of what you can find at the Kastner auction house. We have one thousand items for you to bid on and we ship to all States and provinces. Sign up for our exciting internet auctions that you can enjoy from any electronic device including your Apple/Android smart phone. Sign up for our internet auction notifications right here: Internet Auction VIP Notification

Start bidding on New Appliances, Furniture, Property Seizures and more. Although we are located in Edmonton Alberta, We Ship to The World as Far As Spain. To see what else is selling this week, please go to: www.kauctions.ca