

We are Muslims, Christians and Jews. We build together.

Build Israel Palestine is a group of Muslims, Christians and Jews in the United States supporting the development of cross-border water projects in Israel and Palestine.

Building together ensures everyone is invested.

OUR MISSION

Build Israel Palestine (BIP) is a community of Muslims, Jews and Christians in the United States committed to helping people on the ground in Israel and Palestine through cross-border water projects by partnering with locals in Israel and Palestine.

The Arava Institute

The Arava Institute for Environmental Studies is a leading environmental studies and research program in the Middle East. It houses academic programs in partnership with Ben Gurion University, research centers, and international cooperation initiatives focusing on a range of environmental concerns and challenges.

With a student body comprised of Jordanians, Palestinians, Israelis, and students from around the world, the Arava Institute offers students an exceptional opportunity to learn from leading professionals while forming friendships and developing skills that enable them to lead the region and the world in solving today's most pressing environmental challenges.

Here, the idea that nature knows no political borders is more than a belief. It is a fact, a curriculum, and a way of life.

Peres Center for Peace

Founded in 1996 by the 9th President of Israel and Nobel Peace Prize laureate Shimon Peres, the Peres Center for Peace is Israel's leading organization promoting peacebuilding between Israel and its neighbors (particularly between Israelis and Palestinians) as well as between Jewish and Arab citizens of Israel.

The Peres Center – a non-profit, non-governmental, non-political organization - develops and implements a wide range of projects involving thousands annually bringing together a diverse and multi-faceted spectrum of participants: Jews and Arabs, Israelis and Palestinians; old and young; women, men, children and youth; professionals and agents of change.

Kids 4 Peace

Our Mission

We create peace through youth leadership, community service, global friendships, and thoughtful acts of kindness.

Our Vision

Our vision is a safe and peaceful world where all people respect and care for each other and our planet. Kids for Peace serves as a model and inspiration for creating this reality with children leading the way, not only for today, but for generations to come.

Palestinian Internship Program

The Palestinian Internship Program (PIP) provides young Palestinian professionals with three-month internships at leading multinational hi-tech companies (in their Israel centers) and at several leading Israeli hi-tech companies and venture capital funds. A US-registered entity, PIP is backed by USAID and several other funders. PIP coordinates internship positions, recruits and evaluates applicants, assists with visas and lodging, and provides ongoing support to the interns through a Program Manager. In addition to the internship, the program arranges value-adding activities including company visits, workshops on entrepreneurship and “soft skills,” and lectures by leading American academics. Through it all, PIP endeavors to bring its corporate partners quality young talent and familiarity with Arab markets while it offers its individual participants the opportunity to grow their knowledge, work experience, and global exposure.

ORAM

Founded in 2008, ORAM specializes in the protection of exceptionally vulnerable refugees, including LGBTI refugees.
