Pete is a tall, average 21-year-old man, wearing a medical student uniform. He is a first year intern at a small local hospital.

Joe is a playful masculine, dark-skinned 22-year-old residence doctor at the same hospital with Pete.

These two men sit on the stalls, just finishing up their food.

Joe

: You're so lucky man. Your first day and got a night shift. Feeling scared?

Pete

: Of what? The Morgue or Doctor McKey?

Joe

: Of course, I meant Dr. McKey. Haha. But seriously Pete, Aren't you scared of the Morgue at night?

Pete

: If I were scared, why would I study Pathology. Just use your brain Joe, if you have one.

Joe

: Ouch. That hurts baby.

Pete

: Haha.

Joe

: Hey...hey, you heard about B wing elevator story?

Pete

: Nah, what about it?

Joe

: Okay, I'm not trying to scare you or anything but several years ago, there's an ugly murder IN one of the elevators at B wing.

Pete

: Okay, here you go.
