A poem by Robert Frost:

Two roads diverged into a yellow road, and sorry I could not travel both, And be one traveller long I stood and looked down one as far as I could to where it bent into the undergrowth.
Then took the ~~other~~ other just as fair, and sorry I could not travel both...

I forgot the rest, let me
make you a drink.
Do you trust
me?

YEP!

I CAME

ALREADY!

Don't FORGET TO WIPE!!
