INT. LIVING-ROOM - DAY

BRIAN (32) plops onto his Joybird Sofa with a bowl of popcorn on his lap. He begins to talk directly to camera.

BRIAN

When it came time to buy a new sofa, I thought it was going to be a drag. I hate shopping. I was fine with having my wife just pick something from the local furniture store, but then she found Joybird. I have to admit, it's pretty cool. I even had fun. With Joybird, we were able to order our sofa without even leaving the house. The process was quick. It didn't even miss any action on the TV. It was weird at first, buying furniture online. But that's where I get my glasses and its were my wife keeps buying shoes. So, I figured, why compromise? Especially since Joybird offers free shipping and returns, a 365 day satisfaction guarantee, and a lifetime warranty. Go and discover Joybird yourself. Trust me, its worth it.
