About WomenWeave

Established in 2002, WomenWeave Charitable Trust has collaborated with designers from more than twenty countries to create and market bespoke accessories woven by the delicate, skilled hands of over 100 women in Central India. Their products are unique. Many yarns are handspun from organic cottons, dyed with 100% natural dyes and loomed with the utmost care and attention.

WomenWeave has supported the role of women in handloom weaving, working toward making handloom a profitable, fulfilling, sustainable and dignified income-earning activity particularly for women in rural areas of India.
