The intention of California's recent gun laws, like many gun control laws that have come in the past, are to oppress and control blacks. Historically the KKK was the very first gun control group, and since then, gun control has been very popular among those who wish to disarm blacks.

As you may have noticed from reading the above, none of the laws serve to make blacks or guns any “safer” or to prevent them from performing acts of harm, they serve only to disarm, and ultimately, control.

This law is just one of many actual laws found among the states that discriminate against blacks, SB-374 (2013-2014) is an actual law passed in the state of California.
