Volunteer Guidelines and Policies

Volunteers are key to the success of The House of Amos' ability to serve our clients. Volunteers are needed to work in the Food Pantry as well as the Literacy department.

Food Pantry volunteers assist staff with filling food bags, maintaining and stocking pantry shelves, distributing food and cleaning.

Literacy department volunteers assist staff with administrative work such as filing and data entry and helping students in ESL classes. Volunteer teachers must have a four year college degree in any major. Please see the literacy director if you are interested in teaching a class.

Discrimination Statement

The House of Amos operates in accordance with the Texas Department of Human Services policy which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, age, disability, religion, political belief or national origin.
